Turf Nomenclature Competition.

10/6 No. 1. 10/6

THE PROPRIETORS of the SPORTING REVIEW have decided to inaugurate a series of nomenclature competitions. These competitions should prove an entertaining feature of the journal, and will no doubt tend to further increase its popularity. Prizes of Half a Guinea each will be awarded for the most suitable name for horses chosen by us. Suggestions which, while euphonious and original, most successfully combine the ideas expressed by the names of sire and dam are those to which preference will be given. Competitors are kindly requested to give their reason for selecting name. Only one name must be sent by each competitor, and it must be understood that names which have previously appeared in the Turf Register or Stud Book shall not be used. The awards will be made by two gentlemen, whose names will be announced in our next issue. The yearling we have selected for No. 1 competition is

BROWN COLT BY CASTOR (IMP.) OUT OF LADY WALMSLEY
