J. W. SHAW, in soliciting a continuance of public favours, takes this opportunity of saying that it is his intention to make the Commercial Hotel noted for everything which is sought for in a leading hotel. The Accommodation for Man and Beast will be of the most comfortable character; the Table will be supplied with the choicest fare, and the Liquors will be of the Best Brands that money can buy. The Charges will also be the Most Reasonable. Those who have not hitherto given the Commercial a trial are invited to do so, and the Proprietor promises that nothing shall be left undone on his part to secure a continuance of any patronage that he may be favoured with. Sample Rooms available for Commercial Travellers.
