On Tuesday, March 17 (St. Patrick's Day),

Professor Pannell, known as the "water wizard," takes his benefit at the Auckland wizard," takes his benefit at the Auckland Graving Dock, at 3 p.m. Though swimming in Auckland has been very much advanced during the past few years by the exhibitions of the Auckland Swimming Club, yet we venture to say that this event of Professor Pannell's will give the art an impetus never before dreamt of. With other events this attractive programme includes an exhibition by the professor himself, assisted by lady pupils. We hope that the professor will have a successful meeting. There is also a 100yds handicap on the programme, and we are in hopes of hearing that the record for the colony (74sec.) will be broken.

MUSIC, DRAMA, ETC.

Spectatum admissi risum teneatis amici?

I MUCH regret that owing to the SPORTING REVIEW'S day of publication being Friday, I was unable to notice Mr. Sheridan's production of "Widow O'Brien, Esquire," which was performed for the first time that evening. It performed for the first time that evening. It was so immeasurably superior to the pieces which had occupied the boards during the preceding part of the season, that I could not resist seeing the other two performances on Saturday and Monday evenings. In this sequel to "Fun on the Bristol," Mr. Sheridan has so chastened and improved the title rôle as to render it now one of the most finished and original characters represented upon the stage. original characters represented upon the stage. I venture to prophesy that Mr. Sheridan's high reputation as an actor of genre characters will be greatly enhanced by this last departure. The
