[BY "ORPHEUS."]

Spectatum admissi risum teneatis amici?

A MUSICAL MAX O'RELL.

M. KOWALSKI has from time to time kindly sent me copies of Le Courrier Australian, an admirably written French newspaper published in Sydney To its columns the famous pianist has been contributing a series of articles describing his concert tour in New Zealand. So charmingly does the writer combine vivid word-painting with quaint humour and philosophic reflections as to merit the fitle I have bestowed on him above. He is truly a musical Max O'Rell, and does not hesitate to relate an amusing anecdote even though the laugh is against himself. Some extracts which I think will prove both amusing and interesting to the reader I have marked for translation. Describing the voyage across, M. Kowalski's sensitive tympanum resents the dinner gong. He asks :--- "Why not equip every steamship with an American steam organ? At 7.30 a.m. the organ might play the well-known air Come into the Garden, Maud.' That would mean, 'get ready for breakfast!' A selection from Beethoven's Pastoral Symphony would signify that the cutlets were dished. If it happened to be poultry-day 'Sing, Sweet Bird,' might be substituted. When a ship heaved in sight 'Nancy Lee' would herald her approach with the charming refrain, oh! o-o-o! oh! o-o-o The idea however is, I fear, too practical, and I shall not patent it." Kowalski's conversation with his barber on loard the Tarawera is another plum. "You know, sir," quoth Figaro, "that the end of the world is fixed for the 7th of January next. The women are to die on the 3rd, the animals on the 5th, and the men on the 7th." "Oh, indeed," I replied, "but who will shave me on the 6th?" Kowalski's description of the entrance to Auckland Harbour is both appreciative and poetically beautiful, but the sublime quickly leads to the ridiculous. A customs official asks the musician where he is going to perform. "In the City Hall," I replied. "The City Hall !" he echoed; "but where are you going to put your animals ?" "I explained that we were a concert company and did not travel with a menagerie." "Oh, I beg pardon," quoth he with a blush, "but you bear so striking a resemblance to the circus manager who passed through last year." At the first concert after playing a piece Kowalski relates that an employee behind the scenes thus complimented him-"Some years ago I heard Henri Ketten play, but you work the piano much harder than he did." To which Kowalski points a moral by adding the following anecdote-"At Vienna Léopold de Meyer after playing a tremendous pumper approached the Emperor Ferdinand, thinking to receive a word of praise. Quoth the Emperor, who was a satirical wag, 'Monsieur Meyer, I have heard Liszt (a modest bow from Meyer), I have heard Thalberg (a lower bow). I have heard Dreyschochbut I vow that I never saw one of those pianists perspire like you !" " * * " While passing Mr. Wildman's shop I noticed a group examining my picture which bears my name. I approached nearer. 'Kowalski,' exclaims a feminine voice; ' did he not assassinate the Czar? What a wicked face ! what a cruel expression ! ' 'What are you talking about, my dear,' asks a male voice ; 'that is Kowalski the pianist—not the Nihilist.' 'Well, I don't care,' replied the lady, 'in all those names ending in ski you can smell Nihilism three miles away !'" In view of the coming of Signor Foli with whom is Miss Rossow, Kowalski's estimate of that talented vocalist will be read with interest:----" Miss Bertha Rossow-a soprano who in Melbourne holds the brilliant post formerly filled by Madame Melbaenother nightingale born in that citypossesses nearly all the qualities which have rendered her predecessor so famous -a young and fresh voice such as the Pattis, Nillsons, Frezzolinis, and Marimons were endowed with at the outset of their careers. In public performances Miss Rossow displays her individuality with remarkable force. According to the character of the work she interprets, her features, in perfect harmony with her music, change in expression from a peaceful calm to a passionate enthusiasm. Fair as Gretchen, and with a far-away dreamy gaze which would have enchanted Goethe, Miss Rossow is the ideal Marguerite of both poet and musician. In a word, hers is an individuality which awaits but the hour to compel the admiration of artistic centres."

THE limits of space forbid my quoting many other gems of thought and wit from M. Kowalski's clever pen. His descriptions of New Zealand throughout are wonderfully accurate and appreciative. Writing in a broad and catholic spirit of many other subjects besides music he is a good illustration of the proverb Nec semper arcum tendit Apollo !

J. C. WILLIAMSON'S ROYAL COMIC OPERA COMPANY.

On Thursday evening the "Gondoliers" after a successful run, gave place to "Dorothy." The familiar and sparkling little opera was capitally staged and played by the company. Messrs. Bracy, Deane, Lauri, Grundy and Rosevear among the gentlemen sustained their rôles with signal success. Among the ladies Miss May Pollard sang very well, and acted with a naïve grace which charmed her audience. The Misses charmed her audience. The Misses Florence Young, Violet Varley and Elsie Cameron most ably supported her. I must award a special meed of praise to the orchestra under M. Leon Caron. A feature in "Dorothy" is the graceful dancing of the Royal Ballerinas, led by Miss Lucy Cobb, whose splendid dancing in "Carmen" during the last season of Simonsen's Opera Company is fresh in the memories of Auckland playgoers Miss Cobb is ably supported by the Misses Minnie Everitt, Ethel Dale, Millie Osberne, Lona Cassella, Alice Mitchell, and another graceful young lady, whose name I do not know.

several years, but I will name one, his setting of "The Better Land." That is a melody which ranks high among the most pathetic and sweetest compositions from Mr. Jude's facile fount, and one " The which will endure for ages. "The Skipper" and "A Thousand Fathoms Deep" are other well-known songs. I feel sure Mr. W. H. Jude will find appreciation and applause in the good city of Auckland

Glove Fight to a Finish.

PALTRIDGE AND O'BRIEN.

VICTORY OF PALTRIDGE AFTER SEVEN LIVELY ROUNDS.

GREAT interest was displayed in this contest by a packed attendance at the Zealandia Rink on Monday evening. At 8.30 the order "Pipes out" was given, and Foughey and the younger Paltridge gave a preliminary exhibition. The firstnamed jigged merrily, and visited his lighter opponent frequently and severely. The latter endured manfully the first round, but cried quits after some severe slogging in the second. At 9 p.m. Jack McConnell and Schofield boxed three rounds, in which the giant was merciful and the little one plucky. At 9.20 Paltridge, accompanied by his seconds Jack Nicholson and the Amateur Champion who had skilfully trained and coached his man, entered the ring. O'Brien, with the Burns brothers as seconds, speedily followed. Pickering, his trainer, was also handy. Paltridge won the toss for gloves, which appeared light and rather loosely O'Brien scaled exactly 9st, stuffed. Paltridge 8st 1221b. Jack McConnell was chosen referee, and Mr. Healey held the watch. Betting was about even, but O'Brien seemed to have the call, and money on him was going abegging. At 25 minutes to ten the men having shaken hands, time was called and business opened.

1st Round.- No time wasted in sparing Paltridge forcing from the start. Some smart counters and exchanges ended in O'Brien receiving a floorer from a cross-counter. O'Brien was on his feet quickly, and the men clenched repeatedly. Paltridge put in several good left hand stabs, but O'Brien retaliated with a good right hand swing on the check. When time was called Paltridge had the best of a merry round.

2nd Round.-Both came up fresh, but Paltridge continued to force, O'Brien's policy seeming to be a waiting one. The latter tried the "La Blanche," but missed. Heavy exchanges, counters, and frequent clinches until time was called.

3rd Round.-O'Brien looked a bit the fresher of the two, and Paltridge sparred for wind a bit. More exchanges, clinches, left hand stabs from Paltridge and La Blanche shots from O'Brien ended in the the latter again being floored and taking his ten seconds. After some equal work time was called.

4th Round .--- O'Brien again tried the La Blanche, and some quick exchanges ended in O'Brien being floored. Rally-ing after his ten seconds he made matters hum a bit, and the round ended with about equal points. 5th Round.—O'Brien got in a heavy rib-roaster, but Paltridge replied quickly with a heavy left hander on the jaw. Both men now jigged hard, and give-andtake punishment left matters about even until after a clinch and wrestle both men fell to the floor amid loud appeals to the referee.

6th Round.-O'Brien opened with a a Blanche which just shaved Paltridge. Heavy exchanges and frequent clinches marked this round, at the end of which both men seemed good for several more rounds. 7th Round. -- A sudden and unlooked for ending to the fight surprised everyone. Paltridge fought O'Brien into his corner, and landing several heavy ones, succeeded in dropping him with a real good one. O'Brien, whether from the blow or the the crash with which his head strnck the floor, did not come to time, and Paltridge was declared the victor.

YESTERDAY afternoon Herr Zimmerman, an accomplished violinist, assisted by the Misses Reeve and Thorpe and Mr. G. M. Reid, gave a successful matinée at the Choral Hall, I am compelled to postpone my notice until next week.

MR. W. H. JUDE, whose unique performances as organist, vocalist, and musical lecturer have received most flattering notices in the South, will open a short season here on Monday next. Many of Mr. Jude's fine compositions are familiar to us, and it will be a great treat to hear the composer's own interpretations of his popular instrumental and vocal works. It seems superfluous to remind musicians of the many beautiful compositions which have delighted us for and lost their stuff.

REMARKS.

That O'Brien, who recently when sick and out of form, lasted out eight rounds with Saxon, should be so easily defeated in seven rounds by Paltridge is not easy to understand. Paltridge is certainly a plucky fighter and a quick hitter. He showed coolness and good generalship throughout the contest. O'Brien, up to the last round, looked capable of repeating his great staying performance with Jack Nicholson. However, that the affair was no slint is proved by the lavish way in which O'Brien's backers put up

Sporting Review.

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 29, 1892.

A QUESTION bids fair to be threshed out in the South Island which it is quite time was definitely settled. We refer to the liability of investors on the totalisator on horses which win races and are then disgualified on technical grounds. At the Ashburton Hunt Club's meeting about a month back there was the inevitable hack race on the programme, open to horses that had never competed in a hack race previously. Emperor won, and a protest was entered against him on the ground that he was not eligible to compete, as he had previously been entered for hack races. The stewards upheld the protest -they had no alternative, records of Emperor having started in hack races being produced—disqualified Emperor, and gave the stakes to the second horse. Thereupon several of the investors on Emperor in the totalisator clamoured for a return of the money invested by them, but the stewards could not listen to them, as the rules of the totalisator (which by the way are incorporated with the Rules of Racing) distinctly state that dividends follow stakes. One of the investors on Emperor subsequently wrote to the committee of the Canterbury Jockey Club, under whose jurisdiction the Ashburton Hunt Club's meeting was held, asking them to order the A.H.C. to refund the money invested on Emperor. The C.J.C.'s committee have referred the matter back to the Hunt Club for explanation, they apparently not being able to find any precedent for over-riding the totalisator rules. But it does really seem rather hard that those people who invested on Emperor should lose their money. One of the most fundamental of the laws of betting is that "in all bets there must be a possibility to win when the bet is made; you cannot lose when you can-not win." This was entirely the predicament of Emperor's backers-they could | day spent among congenial surroundings, | forehead. She is perhaps a bit over-to compete in the race. While we do not see how in the face of the Rules of the Totalisator the Ashburton Hunt Club could have taken the money invested on Emperor out of the pool and returned it to the backers of that horse, the question of principle is a wide one, and we think it is time that the rights of backers who lose their money over a horse on whom they could not have won -as in the case of Emperor's supporters -should be legislated upon. Backers cannot be expected to carry the performances of every horse-and especially a so-called "hack "-in their heads. The clubs by using the totalisator openly invite the public to bet, and the public are entitled to have a chance of winning, the same as they would in an ordinary bet with a bookmaker. The Totalisator Rules in this respect stand sadly in want of amendment, and we hope the Emperor case will be the means of the law being altered so that backers will not lose their money in the way they did at Ashburton.

A PECULIAR case of disqualification occurred at the Otago Hunt Club races, held under the auspices of the Dunedin Jockey Club the other day. In the Trotting Handicap Dexterina, ridden by her owner, a Mr. McMullen, came in first, but was protested against on rather un-common grounds. It appeared that on his way back to scale, after he had won the race, a trotting boot which Dexterina had been wearing during the contest and which she had got rid of while trotting, was handed to by Mr. McMullen by an employé of the Club named Conn, and received by him. A protest was lodged against Mr. McMullen on the ground that he had committed a breach of the rule which states that "if a jockey touch (except accidentally) any other person or thing other than his own equipments before weighing-in, his horse may be dis-qualified." When the stewards met to consider the protest, Conn acknowledged that he had handed the boot to Mr. Mc-Mullen, but he said that he was not aware he had done anything wrong. Mr. Mc-Mullen's explanation was that he did not know the boot had been dropped, and that when a man approached to hand him something he received it without knowing what it was till he had it in his hand. The stewards, however, decided to disqualify Dexterina for the race and give the stakes to Lizzie, who had finished second. Hard lines this for Mr. Mc-Mullen, we think. Certainly he committed a technical breach of the rule, but it was done with no fraudulent intent so far as we know, and it will be observed that the rule only says that the offending party "may be" disqualified. The power given to the stewards is a discretionary and not a mandatory one, and for this reason we are strongly of opinion that in the face of all the circumstances, the stewards should have exercised their discretionary power, have let Mr. McMullen off with a caution for his ignorance, and have given Dexterina the stakes.

Amid the Thoroughbreds A LOOK THROUGH WELLINGTON PARK.

[BY "SIR LAUNCELOT."]

My first visit to Wellington Park was as my readers will remember, reported in of being able to race to a good tune, and it was only done in brief form, for my visit at the time in conjuction with Mr. I. McNicol of Waikato and several other lovers of the thoroughbred was but a hurried one. When on that occasion in my innocence I produced my note book and started to jot down my impressions of the yearlings, Mr. Morrin exclaimed, "Put up your book, 'Sir Launcelot'; you and I must have a quiet day together and go over the whole establishment." And so I looked forward to a great treat, and, as the sequel will show, I was not disappointed. Mr. Morrin and I did have a quiet day together at Wellington Park on Thursday last-a day that might have been a little nicer from a meteorological aspect, but which was otherwise the most pleasant, for I was on a congenial theme to me-the home of the infant thoroughbred, and with no one to worry us by questions not pertinent to the subject I enjoyed the way in which Mr. Morrin performed the duties of guide, philosopher and friend, and his talk on strains of blood and the "nicks" thereof arguments on which he takes a lot of beating. And, in short, I spent one of the most pleasant days I have ever enjoyed in the course of my numerous stud strolls in Australia and New Zealand-a not win because the horse was ineligible | in the presence of some of the most celebrated brood mares to be found south of the Line-a day that will ever remain a green spot in my memory as the first occasion on which I had a look through the Wellington Park Stud.

The location of Wellington Park about 12 miles from Auckland, the drive thereto and the pretty surroundings of this home of the thoroughbred are themes that have been "done" so often by the journalist—sporting and otherwise—that I will not enlarge upon them, but proceed at once to a narration of what I saw when I got to the Park. Mr. Morrin greeted me heartily, and we commenced with an inspection of the yearlings. The first I saw was a daughter of Castor-a filly out of Necklace, one of the best mares that ever sported silk in New Zealand. This a very evenly-shaped filly, not perhaps likely to furnish into a particularly big one, but she will show all the quality of her dam with plenty of power. She is a chestnut in colour, with white hind feet. The next box was occupied by a grey filly by Nordenfeldt out of Maid of Athol (dam of Krupp, Soudan, Kotuku, Scots Grey and Queen of Trumps). This filly is a dark grey in colour, and, I am told, closely resembles her now two-year-old sister Norsemaid, for whom the Hon. J. D. Ormond gave 280 gns. She will be a good-sized raking filly, and possesses plenty of length, but might be a bit better turned in the barrel. A great slashing young lady is the filly by Hotchkiss out of Radiant (dam of Lustre), and Radiant is a full sister to Quadrant, being by Robinson Crusoe out of Radiance. With plenty of size and power and big bone and a nice level back, I liked this filly very much. Her half-sister Lustre has already shown the possession of a good turn of foot. The next lot should realise a good price in any case, more especially if Crackshot win the New Zealand Cup-which is well within the bounds of probability-for she is a full sister to Crackshot. She resembles him in colour, but will never, I should say, be quite as tall as he. She is nicely coupled, girths well, and has fine driving power to send her along, and as there has never been a living brother to Crackshot, and it is not likely there will be another sister now that Nordenfeldt is in Australia, this filly should set many a bidder's head nodding to a good tune when she enters the sale ring. Formo, the daughter of Sterlingworth and Pulchra (dam of Lady Evelyn and St. Clair) is represented by a daughter of Norden-feldt-her first foal. Like her dam and all the Pulchra stock this yearling filly is on the small side, but in another respect she also resembles them-she is brimful of quality from her head to her tail. Be it remembered she is bred very like St. Clair, who was a good honest racehorse, and she has got the valuable addition of the Sterlingworth (sire of Scot Free) strain thrown in, and what could be better than his blood ?---by Sterling (sire of Isonomy) out of Chillianwallah, by Newminster—Lady Gough, by Launcelot (brother to Touchstone). Then again, Pulchra is by Rosicrucian (a great English racer) out of Formosa (who performed the unprecedented feat of dividing the Two Thousand Guineas, and winning the One Thousand, Oaks and Leger) by Buccaneer-Eller, by Chanticleer out of Ellerdale's dam. Even if this filly never raced a yard—and she has every indication SPORTING REVIEW of August 25, but | comingearlyasatwo-year-old-sheshould be invaluable as a brood mare with such strains of blood in her possession. Nordenfeldt is also responsible for the paternity of the next filly I saw - a daughter of Bianca, an Australian-bred mare by Black Eagle (son of Yattendon) out of Bessie, by Angler (sire of Onyx) out of Scraps, by Lord of the Hills (imp.) -Ragpicker (sister to Sylvia). This is a strongly-built filly, not remarkable per haps for quality, but all there for power and strength, and a real well-bred one to boot. This is Bianca's third foal to Nordenfeldt, and her now two-year-old was bought by Mr. Gollan for 560 gns. I have heard good accounts of him from Napier. The filly by Castor out of the Anteros-Albatross mare Gannet (dam of Brigand) has thrown back to her grandsire Anteros in colour, being a chestnut. She has immense substance, and is a great commanding filly that may want time, but looks all over like racing, and I liked her very much. And now came up for inspection what should, as there is no son nor daughter of Frailty to be offered, prove to be the highest priced yearling at the forthcoming sale— the sister to Strathmore by Nordenfeldt -Ouida. This filly is like her brother, a whole brown with a white star in her grown and somewhat course, but she go for anything like the 85gs. she realised looks as if she will soon fine down, and as a yearling. Her buyer will have to with her big bone and power, powerful and drooping quarters, well sprung ribs, and nicely let down hocks, she is a young lady who should worthily uphold the reputation of the illustrious dam from whom she sprung and her distinguished brother. The filly by Castor out of the Féve mare Victoria (who was such a consistent performer in the Auckland district) is the same colour as her dam, a chestnut. Like her, too, she is not a very big one, but she is full of substance and has a great deal of quality, stands on good legs and has a nice straight back and strong muscular quarters. This is Victoria's third foal, and is likely to be a cheap lot, and I should recommend her as the makings of a good "poor man's horse "-as the expression goes. Another of the same sort, though not showing the power of Victoria's daughter, is the bay filly by Castor out of Veneration by Patriarch (son of Yattendon), out of Fides, by St. Aubyn-Chance (full sister to Revoke). The filly by Tasman out of the Apremont-Luna mare Moonray, is on the small side, and otherwise bears a strong resemblance to her sire. In another row of boxes were the rest of the yearling fillies, four in number, viz., a filly by Castor out of Brown Bess (sister to Derringer), by Musket-Rosalie; filly by Castor-Welcome Katie, by Musket (imp.)—Dundee's Katie (imp.); filly (sister to Stepniak) by Nordenfeldt— Steppe (imp.), by Saunterer; and filly (sister to Yattaghan) by Nordenfeldt-Yattacy, by Yattendon. Of this quartette my pick was decidedly the daughter of Castor and Welcome Katie. This young lady is one of the biggest youngsters in the whole establishment and one of the She has nicest in point of quality. plenty of length, and, though a tall one, She has stands on nice short legs plenty of heart room, does not lack liberty, is well ribbed up, has great driving quarters, and is beautifully let down-a filly altogether that will stand any amount of picking to pieces. Be it remembered too that her dam has produced a good winner in Tulloch, and is sired by Musket out of a daughter of Dundee (who was the crack two-year-old of his year, and who, literally on three legs, hobbled home second to Kettledrum in the English Derby), tracing back on the dam's side to Phyrne, one of the landmarks of the English Stud Book. The Steppe filly resembles Stepniak in colour, being a brown. She shows a bit of quality, but is on the small side, and it is really surprising that when mated with Nordenfeldt, Steppe-a fine big mare herself-did not produce bigger animals than this filly, her sister She and her brother Stepniak. The Yattacy filly is also on the small side, in which respect she is in marked contrast to her brother Yattafeldt, now in training at James Kean s.

The first of the yearling colts I looked over was a son of Tasman and Vanguard's half-sister Rose and Black, and the first of the progeny of that dame, who had a bit of foot when racing in Mr. D. O'Brien's colours as a two-year-old. is a dark bay in colour, and, owing to his dam not being the best of mothers, is a bit backward in condition, but he will furnish into a wiry cut-and-come-again sort of customer. The colt by Nordenfeldt out of Patch (dam of Patchwork superfluous to mention are the last of the and Quilt) is the last of the progeny of his dam, for she died a few months back. He is a dark bay in colour, and is most peculiarly marked with a white blaze and three white legs. He is a strong wiry customer, and if purchasers are not prejudiced against him by reason of his peculiar markings and his close relationship to the erratic Patchwork, he may fetch a good price. I have heard very good accounts of his full brother Gun Cotton, whom Mr. D. Campion has in hand. The colt by Tetford out of the Leolinus-Miss Laura mare Lioness, is a somewhat loosely built youngster, and I cannot say that I am enamoured of his lineage on either side of his pedigree. The bay colt by Castor out of Derringer's half-sister Queen Cole, was a December foal, and is therefore a bit backward, but he will furnish into a tolerably goodlooking one; and another backward one is the bay son of Castor and Ariolena. The colt by Nordenfeldt out of Lyrelinus by Leolinus-Lyre, has thrown back to Leolinus in colour, and resembles him a good deal on the top. The dam of this colt, intending purchasers should remember, is full sister to All There, a horse that has shown some first-class form at the Melbourne suburban meetings. The colt by Castor out of The Jilt (dam of bourhood, and so long as the Auckland Eve) is hardly likely after his half-sister's Trotting Club continue in this track there Eve) is hardly likely after his half-sister's Trotting Club continue in this track there quarter, and T. Payten's stable again Newcastle, by Splendor (imp.) out of success in the A.R.C. Juvenile Plate to need be no fear about the welfare of the provided the favourite in Ulric, by Camelia by Kelpie-Baroness. Roburite, pay a bit more than that for the colt, who, though on the small side, is beautifully turned and has a good bit of quality about him. A powerful colt is the doubtfully bred son of Aida (dam of Impulse). returned as being by Castor or Hotchkiss. He is undoubtedly a Hotchkiss, having been foaled to that horse's service. The bay colt by Hotchkiss, out of Fairy Queen-Fairy Queen by The Dauphin-Queen Mab by Derby, out of Ariel's dam Una—is a perfect giant, and would readily pass muster for a two-yearold. He has plenty of good points about him, though. The colt by Hotchkiss out of Katipo is another big 'un, but is not quite so overgrown as the Fairy Queen colt. He has nice length and fine propelling power, and it must be noted that being by a son of Musket out of a halfsister to Crackshot, he bears very close relationship to the latter celebrity. The brown colt, with white hind feet, in the next box, is the result of the first union of the famous Onyx with Hotchkiss. Those who have seen Nordenfeldtwhich I am sorry to say I have never done-tell me that this colt is very like what Nordenfeldt was at the same age. He is not particularly noticeable for quality perhaps, but there is a wear and tear look about him that I like. He is lengthy enough, stands over a lot of ground, and is good to stand in front of and to follow, and has a set of legs that look like wearing. Balista, the sister to Artillery and Hilda, shows her first foal in the shape of a colt by Castor, and if this is a sample of the stock she is going to throw in future I can only say that she will be one of the most valuable mares in the whole of Mr. Morrin's collection. The young gentleman under notice is bay in colour, and has tons of power, plenty of quality, fine driving quarters, and a capital set of legs under him-altogether an exceptionally nice colt. The colt by Castor out of Bangle (the sister to Necklace, Thunder olt and Chain Shot), shows plenty of quality, but might be a little taller. He, too, has heaps of power, and does credit to his dam, who never yet seems to have been properly mated. "The clipper that stands in the stall at the top," and the last of the yearlings I saw, is indeed "the pick of the stable, the show of the shop," in my humble opinion at all events. This is the roan colt by Castor out of Vivandiere (dam of Son of a Gun and The Dancer). Of course there are a lot of worthy people I know that will be prejudiced against his colour-he is a roan-but leaving that out of the question where can they pick him to pieces? He is a good-sized colt without a particle of lumber about him, is beautifully turned, capitally let down behind, with wellsprung back ribs and a back like a billiard table. He is unquestionably my pick of the whole lot, and the recent successes of his half-brother The Dancer are sure to make bids for his possession come rapidly. What a pedigree he has! -by imported Castor out of a mare by Musket out of a daughter of imported Bishop of Osnaburgh, whose sire Surplice won the English Derby. I shall not be surprised to find this colt one of the highest-priced lots at the sale. So much for the youngsters Mr. Morrin has to submit to the public this season-29 in number. Among them it is almost sport of trotting in this district-it is ound to go ahead and prosper.

Saturday morning broke promisingly enough, so that a good many people journeyed out to Potter's Paddock, but after the first race the weather broke up a bit, though there was only one slight shower of rain the whole afternoon. A capital day's sport eventuated, and the officials got the events well off to time. Mr. E. D. Halstead-to whose handicaping a good deal of the success of the meeting was due-made a most efficient starter. Mr. T. McEwin provided an excellent lunch.

A capital commencement was made by the large field of 16 going out for the Maiden Trot. The Broker was a slightly better favourite than Peggy, but he did not get a shop, Peggy winning very comfortably from Ladybird and Major. Peggy is owned by the well-known Taranaki sport Mr. "Jay" Russell, who rode her, and well deserved his win for bringing her up from New Plymouth. Nettie was the only absentee from the Flying Stakes Handicap, leaving 10 ponies to go to the post. When the sigponies to go to the post. When the sig-nal was given Rodney, who was favourite, singled himself out, and won in a canter from Silkworm.

The big event of the day, the Spring Handicap Trot of 130sovs, two miles and a-half, next came up for decision. Eight put in an appearance, and the scratch nag Charlie was served up a warm favourite. He trotted in first-class style, but with 10sec advantage Nellie proved too good for him. She had got through her field by the time half the journey was covered, and from thence out had things all her own way. The best race of the day was the Tramway Handicap, for ponies, seven furlongs, and Pica once more proved what a good little fellow he is by only being beaten a head by Robin, to whom he was giving no less than 42lb. Robin paid the best dividend of the day—£9 15s, for each 10s invested. We were now all on the tip-toe of expectation to see how the great Rarus, who only a few days previously had at New Brighton lowered the two-mile harness record for New Zealand, would acquit himself from the scratch mark in the Harness Trot, two miles and a-half. With Charlie eliminated only half-a-dozen were left to tackle the big gun, on whom backers laid a shade of odds in the totalisator. Scotchman soon passed the limit animal, Jip, and there was a good deal of speculation as to whether Rarus, who was handicapped to give him 53sec, would catch him. The crack, when he warmed to his work, bounded along in a style seldom seen, and catching Scotchman about 5 furlongs from home, won very easily. Naturally, his magnificent performance evoked a good deal of enthusiasm, and both he and his old pilot Edwards were loudly cheered. It will be a long time before Rarus' deeds in the New Zealand trotting world are eclipsed.

It was very hard lines on such a game un as Pica to again meet more than his match in the Pony Hurdles. He once more struggled gamely to the end with the "thumper" for one of his inches of 11.7, but was beaten two lengths by Minnie Grey, who was receiving 28lb from him. Rarus was scratched for the Electric Handicap Trot, which was contested by a field of half-a-dozen, Ladybird winning all the way from Midnight, Charlie, the favourite, finishing third. This brought to a conclusion a very pleasant afternoon's sport, and all concurred in the opinion that the Auckland Trotting Club had commenced the season of 1892 3 most auspiciously. $\pounds 2,053$ 10s., at 10s. tickets, went through the totalisator.

Martini Henry-Uralla, the property of Mr. "J. B. Clark." He started favourite at 5 to 2 against, and won by two lengths from J. Monaghan's nomination Isaac, Mr. Forrester's Ronda being third. Time, zmin 123sec. Among the starters were Australian Peer's halfbrother Prime Minister, Aurelius, Argos, Real Lace, and Lady Trenton.

The A.J.C. Derby of 500sovs, one mile and a-half, next came on for decision, and the following went to the post :- Mr. J. B. Clark's ch c Camoola, by Chester -Copra (Huxley); Mr. J. B. Clark's b c Arquebus, by Martini Henry-Acmé (Liddiard); Mr. G. Hill's b c Blarney Stone, by Marvellous—La Belle (Ellis); Mr. H. C. Dangar's b c Attalus, by Welcome Jack-Signora (Nerriker), and Mr. J. Gough's b c Dan O'Connor, by Marvellous-Mavourneen (Parker). Odds of 5 to 2 were laid on Camoola, in whose interests Arquebus made the pace. At the end of the first furlong Arquebus was leading Attalus by three lengths, Blarney Stone being next. In this order they raced to the seven furlongs post, at which point Arquebus was leading Attalus by six lengths, with Camoola lying third. From this point Attalus was beaten, and Camoola began to move up to the leader, Arquebus entering the straight three lengths in front of him. Catching him at the distance, Camoola came on and won by three parts of a length from Arquebus, with Blarney Stone two lengths away third, and Dan O'Connor last. Attalus was pulled up, and on returning to the paddock it was seen that he had broken a blood vessel. The time of the race was 2min 40sec. This is Huxley's second consecutive victory in the A.J.C. Derby, he having been on the back of Stromboli last year, and Stromboli, like Camoola, was owned by the syndicate that race under the name of Mr. "J. B. Clark." Camoola is by Chester (winner of the V.R.C. Derby and Melbourne Cup of 1877) out of Copra (sister to Navigator and Trident), by Robinson Crusoe (brother to Onyx) out of imported Cocoanut.

The capital field of 25 went to the post for the Epsom Handicap of 1000sovs, one mile, and Payten's stable had shown such good form in the previous events that backers now made another of his string (Trieste) favourite at 4 to 1. Next in favour came Playmate, Helene, and Bendigo. The full field was as follows-Victor Hugo, 9.0, including 10lb penalty; Iridentine, 8.12; Alchemist, 8.12; The Swell, 8.10, including 10lb penalty; The Workman, 8.8; Trieste, 8.6; Florrie, 8.6; Elymas, 8.4, including 10lb pen.; Shamrock, 8.0; Alexander, 7.10; Helene, 7.9; Bendigo, 7.7; Cardoness, 7.7, including rolb penalty; Mascara, 7.6; Alcides, 7.6, including 10lb penalty; Kookaburra, 7.5; Insignia, 7.4; Gaytime, 7.3, includ-ing 10lb penalty; Cumino, 7.2; Playmate, 7.0; Daredevil, 6.12; Spyglass, 6.10; Glitter, 66; Kilmore, 6.6; and Luna, 6.5. Entering the straight for home Kilmore was two lengths in front of Insignia and Daredevil, but the lastnamed came through at the distance and cantered home three lengths in advance of Kilmore, who was half-a-length in front of Shamrock. Cardoness was fourth and Kookaburra fifth, the field being whipped in by Alexander. Time, min 40sec. Daredevil, who runs in the name of J. Burton, the trainer, is a three-year-old, and is sired by the unbeaten Grand Flaneur out of Telescope by Piscater (sire of Patchwork and Ike), progeny of Nordenfeldt that he sired before he left New Zealand, and as several of them are out of mares that he has previously nicked with most successfully they should evoke some keen competition. Both Castor and Hotchkiss have yet to earn their laurels at the stud, but if we are to judge them by the results of their first season as detailed above, then assurredly a high niche in the temple of stud fame will have to be accorded to the imported Zealot horse and to the son of Musket and Petroleuse.

With the rest of the Wellington Park Stud I shall deal next week.

Auckland Trotting Club's Spring Meeting.

[BY "SIR LAUNCELOT."]

I RECEIVED my first introduction to trotting in Auckland on Saturday last, and a very pleasant introduction it proved. Judging by what I saw at the Auckland Trotting Club's Spring Meeting on Saturday I should say that trotting is properly conducted in Auckland and its neigh-

Australian Jockey Club's Spring Meeting.

WE are now in possession of details of the first and second day's racing of the Australian Jockey Club's Spring Meeting, and appended will be found a resumé of the principal events :-

FIRST DAY-SATURDAY, SEPT. 10.

The ball was set rolling with the Handicap Hurdles of 200sovs, about two miles and a-half, for which a field of 15 went to the post, the winner being Mr. T. Payten's nomination Pro Consul, 11.0. He ran a good horse and was only beaten a neck by Mr. W. Yeomans' b g Frantic, aged, 10.0 (Longford), and third place was filled by Mr. A. Clarke's ch g Tramp, 9.11. Nolan rode the ex-New Zealander Vanguard, who had 10.5 up. Time, 5min 4½sec. There were 18 runuers for the Trial

Stakes of 200sovs, one mile and a-

out of Spec by Speculum—Lady Hilda (imp.) by Lord of the Isles—Rigolboche (dam of the English Derby winner Cremorne).

The weight-for-age Spring Stakes, of a mile and a-half, with 50050vs added money, brought out Bungebah, Little Bernie, Marvel, Oxide, Realm, Pippin, St. Albans II., Ruenalf, Autonomy and Candour. Odds of 5 to 4 were laid on Autonomy, who was ridden by Liddiard. 4 to 1 was taken about Marvel, and 6 to i about Bungebah. Realm showed the way to the seven furlongs post, where St. Albans II. began to move up, and at the end of the next furlong he had a clear lead of Realm, with Bungebah coming fast on the outside, and Autonomy still last. The field closed up at the half-mile post, where Bungebah shot to the front. From that out he was never headed, and won easily by a length and a-half from Oxide, who beat Autonomy by three parts of a length in the run home. St. Albans II. was fourth, and Marvel fifth. Time, $2\min 42\frac{1}{2}$ sec.

The Kensington Handicap of 200sovs, one mile, with which the day's sport concluded, produced a field of 20, and fell-to Mr. J. Barnett's three-year-old colt 6

SECOND DAY-TUESDAY, SEPT. 13.

The curtain was rung up with the Shorts' Handicap of 20050vs, 6 furlongs, for which a field of 19 started. Favouritism was divided between Newcastle, 8.2, and Prime Minister, 8.2. Kilmore, 7.9, made most of the running, and led into the straight, but he was soon collared by Newcastle and Victor Hugo, 9.9, and the latter won cleverly from Newcastle, with Prime Minister third. fime, min 15sec. Victor Hugo is by Chester-Kathleen, and belongs to Mr. W. Kelso.

After Mulgrove had won the Grand Stand Plate and Crichton the Spring Maiden Stakes (Blarneystone running second in the latter event, with odds of 5 to 4 laid on him), the following were weighed out for the A.J.C. Metropolitan Stakes of 1000sovs, one mile and a-half: The Workman, 8.6; The Swell, 8.3, including 5lb penalty; Realm, 8.4; Florrie, 8.2; Forty Winks, 8.0; Impulse, 7.12; Althotas, 7.10; Candour, 7.9; Alexander, 7.9; Pippin, 7.7; Magnus, 7.5; Vespasia, 7.5; Ruenalf, 7.3; Dan O'Connor, 7.3; Daredevil, 7.3, including 10lb penalty; E.K., 7.2; Arquebus, 7.0; Cardoness, 7.0, including 5lb penalty; Selkirk, 6.12, including 7lb penalty; Yowi, 6.11; Ethelbert, 6.10; Playmate, 6.10; Luna. 6.3; Lemnos, 6.3, and Bodkin, b.o. Arquebus was favourite at 4 to 1, the other leading prices being 5 to 1 Selkirk, 9 to 1 Ethelbert, 11 to 1 Realm, 14 to 1 Daredevil, 16 to 1 each Impulse, Alexander and Pippin, 20 to 1 each Candour and Vespasia. Cardoness and E.K. led for half a mile, with Candour, Playmate and Vespasia next. Five furlongs from home Cardoness, Playmate and E.K. were in a line. E.K. forged ahead in the next few strides leading Playmate, Cardoness, and Daredevil, who retired, Vespasia running into second place. the bend Vespasia caught E.K., and led into the straight, with E.K., Cardoness, Magnus, Daredevil, Selkirk and Althotas next. Vespasia was first at the distance, but Pearson, riding a most resolute finish on Althotas, caught her 50 yards from home and won, all out, by three parts of a length, with Selkirk half a length away third, followed by Magnus, Cardoness and Impulse, Florrie being whipper-in. Althotas runs in Time, 2min 364sec. the nomination of Mr. W. L. Smith, and is a five-year-old by Phil Athol (son of Blair Athol and imported Phillina) out of Goldine by Goldsbrough-Rosalie by Peter Wilkins.

Trieste was only opposed by Mascara, Qneensborough, and her stable mate Widden in the A.J.C. Oaks of 30050vs. one mile and a-half, and she easily landed the z to 1 laid on her, winning very comfortably by half a length from Mascara, with Queensborough (who runs in J. Chaafe's nomination, and was ridden by his son), third. Time, zmin 46sec.

Prime Minister, 7.8, wound up the day by winning the Squatters' Handicap of 500sovs, one mile and a-quarter, from Helene, 7.10, Roburite, 6.8, and 19 others. Roburite was favourite at 5 to 2, Prime Minister being next at 7 to 1. Won by a head. Time, 2min 10sec.

As we were going to press Mr. Morrin advised me that his mare Moilena, by Patriarch—Rosa-belle, had just foaled a filly to Castor.

It seems that when Dilemma, the son of Rubezahl and Lady Emma, won the Kensington Handicap, the principal event of the Otago Hunt Olub's Races—and which victory, by the way, does not cause him to incur a penalty for the New Zealand Cup, in which his weight is 7.0— he ran in the colours of Mr. J. B. Reid and not of the Hon. G. McLean. Mr. Reid is a wealthy Oamaru landowner. In commenting on the results of the O.H.C.'s meeting, "Mazeppa," in the Olago Witness, remarks ;—" There was only one horse in the Kensington Handicap from start to finish, and Dilemma's party—a pretty numer-ous one, for Mr. J. B. Reid told all his friends to back the colt—were on excellent terms with themselves from the time the flag fell. This was the first time, by the way, that the son of Lady It seems that when Dilemma, the son of themselves from the time the flag fell. This was the first time, by the way, that the son of Lady Emma had appeared in Mr. Reid's pretty colours, scarlet with white cap, though it is some months since the Hon. G. McLean disposed of the ownership for a fairish consideration. I hope that Dilemma will win many more races for Mr. Reid, for this gentleman is a keen lover of the aport, an owner who may be relied on to go as straight as the Zetland spots and always give the public a square run for their straight as the Zetland spots and always give the public a square run for their money. The only horse in the Kensington that at any period of the race threatened danger to the favourite was Galtee, and he distinctly failed to stay. * * * Dilemma was perhaps a bit lucky at flag fall, but he won with half-a-stome in hand, and the result would pro-bably have been the same, so far as the first money was concerned, if he had got off last in-stead of first." Dilemma, I may mention, was well backed in Auckland for the New Zealand money was concerned, if he had got on last mi-stead of first." Dilemma, I may mention, was well backed in Auckland for the New Zealand Cup some weeks back, a commission on behalf of the stable being executed by a well-known

Figaro. In further commenting on the Otago Hunt In further commenting on the Olago link Club's Meeting (the full report of which appeared in our "Turf Record" column last week), "Mazeppa" says :— "The question may be asked whether there were any horses competing at the Hunt Club Meeting that are likely to be heard of during the season. My answer is decidedly in the affirmative. Rebel has pace enough ord is sufficiently clover to have a chance enough and is sufficiently clever to have a chance in second-rate steeplechases, even if he does not aspire to the best company. He is by the same sire (Duntroon) as Smuggler, another smart horse that will win money over the little sticks. Trimolite must be reckoned now as a steeplechaser as well as a hurdler. He takes log fences as easily as anything that we had running, and his turn of speed enables him to stay. Of the recognised flat racers Wayland has improved out of all knowledge, and will, I think, knock up a decont cheque before the season is out. Glencairn also should win races. Allan seems to have found out and removed the cause, whatever it was, of his keeping so poor last season. Bay Bell is another that will be heard of. Her win was immensely popular, cheers being given for Stuart Waddell as the clerk of the scales declared 'weight.' She is hardly a Cup mare, however. Conjuror is another that has improved. He can now get a mile without distress, and is really a better colt than his performances last week would seem to make him out to be, since he was speci-ally handicapped with the heavy going, being a long striding horse that rolls and slips about in slush. But it is to his stable-mate Dilemma that we may look with the utmost confidence for good performances. He is now thoroughly well, thanks to his inherent soundness and McGuin-ness' care, and I would not be much surprised if he were to win the New Zealand Cup, for which he has been legitimately backed as heavily as any horse in the race. I recognise that there is a deal of difference between winning a Kensington Handicap and a New Zealand Cup; but he takes a stone off for the long race, and he can be made half a stone better in the interval, and he appears to be rather partial to a distance. It would be absurd to say just now that he is a really good ining; at the same time this performance of his is not to be altogether despised, and we may at any rate hope that the son of Lady Emma will follow the example set by Wolverine two years ago. The big son of Tangi, it may be remem-bered, won the Kensington Handicap just before he got home in the Cup." thing; at the same time this performance of his

At the time Kulnine won the C.J.C. Grand National Hurdle Race I remarked that his dam Caprice (who is by Anteros ont of Fancy, and is therefore full sister to The Poet) was somewhere in New South Wales, having been sent there by Mr. "H. Horsford" along with some other mares and Lochiel and Cadogan, and sold. I now note that, according to the Sydney Referee, Caprice is the property of Mr. J. B. Clift, of Breeza station, N.S.W., who has a filly two years old that is a full sister to Kulnine. The mare is heavy in foal to Newminster's son Acolyte, who won the A.J.C. Metropolitan of 1885. memorable words, "The race is not always to the swift nor the battle to the strong," certainly indited naught but the cold truth; and yet methinks it is equally as certain that on the colonial turf victory does not always declare itself in favour of the highest-priced yearlings. In fact, so far as the experience of this season's Sapling Stakes tends the reverse has been proved to be Stakes tends the reverse has been proved to be the case. Meg, the treble winner in Victoria, was picked up by the Messrs. Miller for 50gs.; Pharamond, who sailed away with Tattersall's Two-years-old Stakes on the 27th ult., was secured by his owner, Mr. W. J. Franks, for 48gs; whilst Innamincka, the winner of the Numer Undianatthe South Automation Tables Nursery Handicap at the South Australian Jockey Club meeting on Saturday, was purchased at the sale of Mr. Sam Gardiner's Bundoora Park yearlings last March for 30gs! Of course these are only notable exceptions to a pretty generally accepted rule-to the effect that if you want a really first-class article you must pay a good price for it. But only to think if one owner had happened to have had the unparalleled good luck to purchase such a trio of youngsters as Meg, Pharamond and Innamincka for 128gs."

According to the report of the race for the Doncaster St. Leger cabled to the Melbourne papers La Flèche won easily by two lengths. When the flag fell Sir Hugo went to the front and held his position for the first half mile, when Orme took command and led into the straight. Just before reaching the distance post, however, La Flèche challenged the favourite, and after a good struggle won as abovementioned from Sir Hugo and Watercress, who both passed Orme in the run home.

Hugo and Watercress, who both passed of the in the run home. La Flèche has followed up her Leger victory by winning the Lancashire Plate of £10,000. Mr. Houldsworth's four-year-old Orvieto, by Bend or-Napoli, who has shown some good form this season, was second, and Mr. J. Snarry's three-year-old Llanthony, by Ormonde Access Bentiot third Agnes Bentick, third.

It is said that Mr. W. T. Jones who owned Bravo when he won the Melbourne Cup and is now on a visit to England, will not at present re-turn to Australia, but will race horses in the Old Country.

The steeplechaser Chance, well known up this way, changed hands in Dunedin the other day, being bought by a Mr. Mason, of Tapanui, Otago.

Mr. J. O. Evett, the handicapper, and Mr. J. Lynch, the owner of The Dancer, will leave for Napier to-day to assist at the Hawke's Bay Jockey Napier to-day to assist at the Hawke's Bay Jockey Club's Spring Meeting, which comes off on Mon-day and Tuesday next. Mr. Evett will remain in Napier to witness the Napier Park Racing Club's Spring Meeting, and then journey to Wanganui to be present at the W.J.C. Spring tryst. He will then return to Auckland to adjust the handi-caps for the Auckland Racing Club's Spring Meeting Meeting

As a result of their successes at the South Canterbury Jockey Club's Spring Meeting, Crack-shot and Vogengang have each incnrred 3lb penalty in the New Zealand Cup, making their Stepper was taken to Wellington by the s.s. Takapuna on Monday, and will be shipped thence to Calcutta by the s.s. Rotokino.

I have to acknowledge the receipt from the secretary of the Manawatu Racing Club of a copy of the programme of that Club's Summer Meeting, to be held on Monday and Tuesday, December 26th and 27th. The added money is £715, divided among fourteen races, the most valuable of which is the Palmerston Cup Handi-ward $200 source one mile and a half cap of 200 sovs., one mile and a half.

Mr. J. McNicol held a most successful sale of horses in Cambridge last week, so I hear from several enthusiastic Auckland sportsmen who were present. Among the lots quitted were the jumpers Onslow and Selwyn. The former went to Mr. R. Williams of Auckland for 185 gns., and the same buyer secured Selwyn for 60 gns. At the annual parade of entires held at the same time, the thoroughbreds shown were Gipsy King, Cap-a-pie, Aorangi, St. Patrick, Muskapeer, Kenil-worth, Raglan and Tetford.

The committee of the Auckland Racing Club met on Tuesday afternoon and passed the pro-gramme of the Gisborne Racing Club's Spring Meeting. The president of the club attended, and answered certain financial questions to the estimation of the committee. The Themse Locker satisfaction of the committee. The Thames Jockey Club's summer programme was passed for December 27th and 28th, the secretary being in-structed to specially communicate with the club, pointing out that these dates would be more beneficial to their own interests than those previously decided on.

There was quite a little excitement infused into local racing circles yesterday by the arrival from Sydney of the s.s. Te Anau, for she had on board Major George, with his horse, The Workman, and Mr. George Cutts in charge of Impulse, and Mr. D. O'Brien rather unexpectedly turned up also. The owner of Florrie is on his way back to Christchurch. Owing to the late hour at which the boat arrived I was not able to have any chat with him about his most recent experiences in the land of his birth, but I understand he won a good stake over Florrie's victory in the Sydney Handi-cap. Of course Dan is anxious about the welfare of some of his old pets now located at Wellington Park, and as the southern boat does not leave till to-morrow he purposes to-day renewing his acquaintance with both Florrie's sire and dam at Mr. T. Morrin's stud. Florrie and Freedom remain in Sydney at present in charge of Alsopp.

The Australian thus comments on Florrie's win in the Sydney Handicap :--- "Mr. Scarr had a habit of taking liberties with horses when he thinks them out of form, and he must be given credit for making few mistakes in this respect. But he sadly miscalenlated the effect a 7lb reduction in weight would have on Florrie. Under 8st 2lb this mare ran last in the Metropolitan. Lowered to 7st 9lb she won the Sydney Handicap in a canter. There were other contradictions of form at Randwick, but Florrie's case seems to a casual observer to stand out from the rest. Her owner, Mr. Dan O'Brien, is said to blame the totalisator for driving him out of New Zealand. Rather should he thank the machine for sending him to a land of milk and honey where he can win $\pounds 500$ handicaps at such prices as Florrie started at on Thurs-day." An effort is being made in America to revive long distance races, and the Coney Island Jockey Club has announced its intention to give a valu-able prize for a race of the distance of four miles. The conditions show that the race will be worth 20 sovs. each with 1000 sovs. added, while if the winner should cover the distance in 7min. 25sec. he will receive an additional sum of 500 sovs. and in the event of Ten Broeck's American record of 7min. 193sec. being reached, a further sum of 500 sovs. will be added. The event will be called the Old Time Race. The St. Leger-Miss Laura horse, Town Moor, was placed second to Paris' son Tumult in the light horse section of the Royal Agricultural Society's show in Melbourne the other day. The verdict gave by no means general satisfaction, many good judges thinking Town Moor infinitely superior to Tumult. Town Moor had not been long over from Tasmania, and after the judges' verdict his owner straightway took him back to the island colony. From Sydney comes intelligence that Mr. Vincent Dowling, owner of Prelude, has resold that mare to the Kirkham Stud establishment on special conditions, one of which is that her first foal by Abercorn is to be the property of Mr. Dowling.

The secretary of the Waikato Hunt Club ad-vises me that the Club have made an alteration in the conditions of the Waikato Produce Stakes by which the second forfeit is to be declared by noor on Thursday, December 15, or the nominator will be liable for the whole stake.

be liable for the whole stake. The secretary of the Dunedin Jockey Club an-nounces by advertisement in another column the closing of certain entries for that Club's Spring Meeting, which is set down for November 29 and 30 and December 3—dates which fit in very well for any North Island owner visiting the New Zealand Cup Meeting. The events to which Mr. Sydney James first invites the attention of nominators close on Saturday week, October 8, and they are the Otageo Cup of Soosov5., one mile nominators close on Saturday week, October 5, and they are the Otago Cup of 50050v5., one mile a-half; Federal Handicap of 20050v5., 6 furlongs; St. Andrew's Handicap of 25050v5., one mile and a-quarter; and President's Handicap of 23050v5., one mile and a furlong. The entry fee in each case is 250v5. The following Saturday, October 15, is general entry night, and the stakes to be then nominated for are detailed in the advertise then nominated for are detailed in the advertisement.

ment. In another column will be found a precis of the running for the principal events on the first and second day of the Australian Jockey Club's Spring Meeting. Owing to the late arrival of the mail from Sydney last evening I am only able to make brief comments on the events of the third and fourth days of the gathering, reserving fuller details for next week.

The following weights were declared last night or Mr. Evett for the Hawke's Bay J.C.'s Spring by Mr. Evett for the Hawke's Bay J.C.'s Spring Meeting: - OCTOBER HANDIGAP, one mile and a distance.--Strephon 8.7, Rosefeldt 8.6, St. Malo 7.12, Dreamland 7.12, Queen of Trumps 7.11, Swivel 7.11, Brown Duke 7.8, Free Lance 7.7, King George 7.7, Wyvern 7.6, Prioress 7.0, Jeannie Deans 6.7. COENTHIAN STAKES, one mile and a quarter.--Gondolier 12.8, St. Malo 11.9, Zaccho 11.7, Link 11.3, Aronoel 10.5, Queen Rose 10.0, Vision 10.0.

The Secretary of the National Coursing Club of New Zealand announces by advertisement in another column that all litters of greyhounds must be registered with the N.C.C. before they are three months old or otherwise they will not be allowed to run as saplings or puppies at any meeting held under the Club's rules. Forms of applied ion for registration may be procured from application for registration may be procured from the secretary of any affiliated Club or the secre-tary of the N.C.C., Mr. G. W. Williams, Dunedin.

There is at last a prospect of coursing being established on a firm basis in the Auckland dis-trict, the rival clubs having met and settled their differences, it being understood that next season will be opened on the Avondale ground on a Plumpton track.

The full programme of the Matamata Racing Club's Annual Meeting to be held on Boxing Day appears in the SPORTING REVIEW'S advertising columns this week. The sum of 60 sove, is to be given away to seven events, the most valuable of which is the Matamata Handicap of 15 sovs., one mile and a half. Entries are to be made at the post in all events.

[FROM OWN CORRESPONDENTS.]

WELLINGTON.

September 24.

The edict of the Wellington Racing Club that the United Hunt Club shall have no more race meetings has been variously criticised, some being of opinion that it is a step in the right direction, others that it is an arbitrary interference with Hunt Clubs generally which by creating a demand for a useful class of horses and by cultivating good fellow-ship aad a healthy sporting rivalry among the better class of settlers are of benefit to the community, and are worthy of encouragement rather than repression. With regard to the Heretaunga Rifles the injunction meets with nearly universal approval, for such bodies are not intended to include racing in their programme, and the general opinion is that although the crack corps of England's army hold annual steeplechase meetings there is no sufficient reason why, under the widely different circumstances the custom, with totalisator accompaniment, should be introduced into New Zealand. The Wairarapa Hunt Club, not being mentioned in the Metropolitan Club's firman, have written to Mr. Lyon asking him if they are to consider themselves included in the embargo, but that astute official has replied that he knows nothing more than they do about the club's intentions in the matter. I presume, however, that the question will come before the stewards at their next meeting. From what I can learn the Metropolitan Club will endeavour to arrange for a two days' Winter Meeting, and introduce at least four events open to hunters only, thus giving those members of Hunt Clubs who are inclined for racing an opportunity for indulging in a bit of sport. Whether the metropolitan body will follow the Canterbury example, and give the Hunt Clubs a proportion of their profits of the meeting I do not know. The Johnsonville and Hutt County Trotting Club, which most people thought had died in the process of parturition, has suddenly come to life with an excellent programme for an inauguratory meeting on the 5th November, that is, just a week after the Wellington Trotting Club's Meeting at Island Bay. The amount to opinions expressed by our correspondents, though, at the same time, we gladly afford space to all com-munications on matters of public interest to the sporting community.--ED. SPORTING REVIEW.]

(The Editor Sporring Review.)

SIR,-Many of your readers will doubtless remember that on the 29th January last the horse Orakei was killed and its rider (A. Byers) severely injured while competing in the Takapuna Steeplechase. Much sympathy was extended to Byers in his great misfortune, and it was suggested in your columns that a subscription list be opened so as to give the sporting public an opportunity of expressing their sympathy in a practical shape. One of these lists was, I believe, left at the office of the Takapuna Jockey Club, it being expected that the winners at the meeting would gladly contribute. Other lists were handed round, and I amongst others gave my mite. It is now exactly nina months since the mishap, but although I am a regular reader of your paper I have never seen any reference to the subject. I assume, however, that the money collected has long since been paid to Byers, but I think, Mr. Editor, that in justice to the subscribers the particulars should have been made public.-I have, etc., SUBSCRIBER.

Up to August 5th last St. Simon's stock had won £31,273 in England this season, and Wisdom came next with £13,109.

be given in stakes is £160, divided over six races, the principal event being the Johnsonville and Hutt County Trotting Club Handicap of 50sovs, three miles. The serious falling off which is notice able in the totalisator returns of the clubs which have already held meetings this season is exciting the grave attention of the Wellington stewards. They ascribe it mainly to the recent legalisation of totalisator betting under Mr. Justice Williams' ruling, and are determined to make a firm stand against it notwithstanding that judge's decision. Their argument is that the Rules of Racing forbid many things that are not in themselves illegal, and they forbid, among other things, totalisator betting. All persons whilst on their course must conform to the Rules of Racing, and those who violate them, whether by totalisator betting or in any other way, will be immediately turned off. The The Hawke's Bay Club, I hear, also, take this view of the vexed question, and intend making it very hot for offenders in this respect.

The grass gallop on the Hutt Course is now in process of formation, and it is said if the weather keeps fine it will be ready for horses to train on in a fortnight.

Mr. H. Fisk has sold the steeplechaser Sir Garnet to Mr. Tait, of the Railway Hotel, Lower Hutt. The price it is said was about £150 which I understand was offered for him in Christchurch after his winning at Plumpton Park. When fit he is quite in the second class, and with a moderate weight is dangerous in any company. I see that he has been nominated by his late owner for your Auckland Spring Meeting, but at present it is a question whether he will go up. Phillip Murtagh. who has trained him and generally ridden him, got a nasty fall with him in the Feilding Hunt Club Cup, which he would have won to a certainty had he not met with the accident, and has been laid up ever since the meeting with a broken collar-bone and a split breastbone. He was out to-day for the first time, and looked very bad, his left arm being still bandaged. He says it was the narrowest shave he has ever had, and has forsworn steeplechasing for the rest of his life.

A. Peters, with the hurdler Bide-a-wee will leave for Napier on Friday next. Τt is not quite settled whether he will also take La Petite Fille. Both have shown good form on the training track lately. The Wairarapa Hunt Club held its last meet of the season last Saturday at Messrs Bidwill Bros.' splendid station at Pihautea, between Featherston and Martinboro. There was a large concourse of prominent settlers, and the day being fine some capital sport was en-joyed. I'wo runs took place, one before lunch in what are called the heifer paddocks, about a mile from the homestead, and the other at 2.30 p.m. in the home-About twenty riders stead paddocks took part in each, and there was some of the best jumping I have seen in the dis-trict. Mr. W. E. Bidwill invited the whole crowd of riders and spectators up to his house and gave them a capital spread. The meet was unanimously voted the best ever held by the Wairarapa Club.

September 27th. [A little difficulty has arisen in connection with the Wellington Racing Club's Summer fixture; Anniversary Day, 22nd January, falling on Sunday, the Club have fixed the meeting for Monday and Wednesday, 23rd and 25th January, but now they find the C.J.C. have selected the following Saturday for their Summer Meeting, so that horses running at Wellington will not be able to get down to Christchurch in time to race there. Communications are going on between the two Clubs, the Wellington stewards wanting the C.J.C. to postpone their meeting until Saturday, the 4th February. This arrangement, if made, will enable horses to go on from Wellington to Christchurch, race there, and go on to Dunedin for the Autumn meeting The Otaki Maori Jockey Club have drawn up their programme for New Year's Day. The sum of £200 is to be given in stakes, the principal events being the Hurdles of 40 sovs.. Boyle Stakes of 25 sovs., Glasgow Handicap of 60 sovs, and Stewards' Stakes of 30 sovs. This Club delights in giving its races the names of the Governor's family. Last recently imported Cleveland Bay, Earl while others—including knowing men season of 1892-3 at Hastings on Monday year, it will be remembered the principal of Hopetoun, and the trotting stallions too, mind you—have accepted hundreds next. The Napier correspondent of this races were the Onslow Cup and the Squire and Ebony, were also on parade. about him because he is "fair on the journal in his weekly budget in another

The Masterton-Opaki Jockey Club, which numbers over a hundred members. was to have held its annual meeting on Saturday last, but only the president and secretary put in an appearance, and the meeting had to be adjourned till Wednesday.

The gentleman who races under the name of "W. Cousens" has sold his Puriri gelding Paramu to a syndicate at the Lower Hutt for 100gs., and the horse goes into Armstrong's stable. The same owner has sent his mare Ranee Nuna (who broke down while undergoing his preparation for the New Zealand Cup) to Christchurch on a visit to Medallion.

The new Ohau Hack Racing Club, which had their programme referred back for compliance with the new Rules of Racing re amount of stakes, have sent an amended programme to the Metropolitan Club with their stakes made up to £500, and it will be considered at the monthly meeting of stewards on Monday.

The Wairarapa Hunt Club have sent a letter to the secretary of the Wellington Racing Club asking whether the injunc-tion against hunt clubs holding race meetings applies to them, but all the reply they have received at present is that nothing has vet been determined.

TARANAKI. September 24.

The Taranaki J.C. committee met on Friday night last to receive the report of sub-committee, who were appointed to draft out programmes for the season. The committee, after discussion, decided on the following programmes :- The programme for the Boxing Day Hack Meeting is: -Maiden Plate 30 sovs, 14 miles; Shorts Race 25 sovs, 4 furlongs: Flying Handicap 40 sovs, 6 furlongs; Handicap Hurdles 40 sovs, about 11 miles; Summer Handicap 85 sovs, 11 miles; Ladies Purse (Handicap) 25 sovs, 1 mile ; Welter Handicap 30 sovs, 1 mile; Farewell Handicap 25 sovs, 6 furlongs. The programme for the Anniversary Meeting is :-- First Day. -- Handicap Hurdles 60 sovs, 11 miles; Hack Hurdles 30 sovs, 11 miles; Scurry 30 sovs, 5 furlongs; T.J.C. Handicap 250 sovs, 11 miles; Hack Flat 30 sovs, 1 mile; Welter 60 sovs, 1 mile; Flying 75 sovs, 6 furlongs. Second Day. — Grandstand Handicap 80 sovs, 7 furlongs; Handicap Hurdles 75 sovs, 2 miles; Hack Hurdles 35 sovs, 12 miles; Autumn Handicap 150 sovs, 12 miles; Hack Flat 35 sovs, 12 miles; Shorts Handicap 50 sovs, 5 furlongs; Consolation 40 sovs, once round.

The committee also decided in view of the Anniversary Day falling on Good Friday next year, to hold the meeting on February 23 and 24, which dates ought to suit, as they come between the Egmont and Wanganui big meetings.

The Hack programme for Boxing Day Meeting is a great improvement on previous years, that is as regards prize money, and such liberality ought to draw a good response from owners of hacks on this Coast.

The committee, it will be observed, have re-inserted open handicap hurdle races in their programme for the Anniversary Meeting. These races were abandoned some three seasons ago, as the committee, or rather a majority of the committee, considered that the Club lost by such events. However, it is to be hoped that the re-introduction of such races in the programme will prove other-wise in the future.

had a big belly, which is due to the fact of his only being recently taken in after a long spell in the paddock. When he loses this stoutness he will look the handsome horse that he is. The Australian, who is well advanced in years, looked rather light, but then he is always a thin 'un; yet, nevertheless, he has sired some good 'uns — Torpedo for example. Lionel looked big and lusty, and far more tractable than he was the previous time he appeared on parade. Evidently "Bill" Russell has got him under perfect control now. The half-brother to Sir Modred, to wit, Eros, was greatly admired by the spectators. He looked quite a model. Mr. Twentyman Wilson, of Stratford, who is the owner of Eros, informed me that it is quite probable that the son of St. George and Idalia will be seen on the race track again. Ionic looked in capital nick, and it struck me he would strip a much better horse for racing this season than he did last season. His owner, however, is determined to put him to the stud. The two-year-old, Galant, was very frisky. He looks rather thin and small at present, but when he starts to fill out he will look much more presentable to the eye. the three draughts Nugget II. looked the best. Mr. Dingle's trotting stallion, Ebony (Blackwood Abdallah - Gentle Annie) looked well. The two recent importations from Melbourne, Earl of Hopetoun and Squire also looked big and well. I understand that Jervey George in tends to race Vendor (Resolution-Confidante) again. I notice that this owner has nominated Durus for several events at the Wanganui Spring Meeting. Russell has also nominated Flukem for both Open Handicap Hurdle Races at the same meeting. The success of the Taranaki pony, Rodney, at the Auckland Troting Club's meeting on Saturday was no surprise to me, for I knew that he possessed plenty of pace, and that the residence he has had in Auckland would tend to cure him of the spirit of a cocktail that he displayed down here.

September 24.

Last Wednesday afternoon Mr. Albert Barns sold by public auction on behalf of Mr. E. McElwain the following thoroughbred stock :--- Empire (by Natator -Gladiator mare), six years old, fetched the sum of £80, being purchased by Mr. D. Hogg; Epsom, five years old, by Ascot-Sunshine, in foal to Natator, was knocked down to Mr. Woods of Palmerston North for the sum of $\pounds 41$; a nice looking chestnut colt, 3yrs, by Ascot— Sunshine, full brother to Epsom and halfbrother to Waterbury. was knocked down to Mr. W. Chapman for £34-(judging by the looks of this colt I should say that he will make a name for himself when asked to race); a bay colt three years old by Natator-Welsh Maid, by Day Dawn out of a Glaucus mare was purchased by Mr. Woods of Palmerston North for \pounds_{22} ; the thoroughbred trotting sire Quicksilver was purchased privately by Mr. Russell of Brunswick Line for the sum of £105.

At the same sale on behalf of Mr. D. Scally, the well-known sprinter Rufus, by Puriri-Toi-toi, was put up, but failed to realise the reserve put upon him, £20.

Mr. Sam Powell's thoroughbred sire Ascot is now stationed down at Rangitikei on Mr. Donald Fraser's run, where he will serve all that gentleman's mares along with a few outsiders.

The well-known hack Daisy Clipper has been nominated for some of the big races at the forthcoming Wanganui

Last year the son of Musket was backed for thousands upon thousands of pounds here, and as Melbourne Cup time again draws near it is astonishing the number of inquiries I get from all parts of the district and from all kinds of people asking if Tirailleur is good enough to win. Well, he will have to improve in his galloping out of all knowledge to win. A bad horse doesn't win a Melbourne Cup, and he will have to gallop from end to end and be able to compass the distance in good time. Before he left Hastings he was credited with having done a clinking trial, but my private opinion is that it was 3sec. behind what he is said to have done, and that is a great deal. We would all like to see him win, of course, but I am afraid that it's too much to expect of him.

September 27. Straight Shot, the brood mare imported from Australia by the Hon. J. D. Ormond cently, has dropped a foal to Dunlop.

Middle Park, Sir Modred's halfprother, is the most fractious youngster I have seen, and if not cured will give the notorious Thackeray a big start.

One of the handsomest colts on the training track at Hastings is the chestnut colt by St. Leger-L'Orient, who should develop into a good racehorse. He is a two-year-old and is half-brother to the speedy Francotte.

One of the biggest two-year-olds knocking about here is St. Cecilia, a full sister to Huguenot.

Whisper is still under a cloud.

There is likely to be a good show of tallions at the A. and P. Show.

Mr. H. Gaisford, the owner of Maid of Lorne, Chatelaine, Whimsical and others, has returned from England.

The Hon. J. D. Ormond lost a fine colt foal the other night through inflamma-tion of the bowels. His breeding was Le Loup—Water Baby. The connections of Cynisca are very sore over the mistake made in transmitting her weight from Auckland not eing rectified sooner than it was.

Midas, the full brother to Merrie England and half-brother to Spade Guinea, promises to furnish into a first-class racehorse.

The Waipawa County Racing Club are presenting a good programme for their December Meeting. The Trial Hurdle Race is worth 40 sovs.; the Maiden Hack 30 sovs. ; the Hack Race 40 sovs. ; the Open Handicap 150 sovs.; the Open Hurdles 80 sovs.; the Hack Flying 30 sovs.; the Ladies' Purse 30 sovs., and the Open Flying 50 sovs. The members of the Hawke's Bay

Frotting Club met last night at Jull's Hotel, Mr. G. Ellis, President, being in the chair. It was resolved that the lease from Mr. W. Stock to the Club of the new trotting course be approved of, and the acting-committee be authorised to execute the same for and on behalf of the Club. The following were elected members :---Messrs. Williamson, Collins, A. McLean, H. Williams, and P. A. Herman. A stewards' meeting was afterwards held, at which it was decided to remove the disqualification from the trotting mare Mokokomiko, who was dis-qualified at Auckland. The various officers for the ensuing meeting were appointed. It was decided to take the necessary steps to make the Club into a Metropolitan Club.

The Taranaki Jockey Club, after many years of battling, have at length made the turn in the proverbial lane, and with the increasing prosperity of the district the future career of the Club should be a prosperous one. That the Club was kept going despite adverse circumstances, was due mainly to Mr. J. Paul and Mr. A. Standish, who were ably assisted by Mr. R. G. Bauchope (the present hon. sec.), Mr. W. L. Newman, and other gentlemen.

On Saturday a stallion parade, under the auspices of the Agricultural Society, was held on the reclaimed land. In blood stallions there were Armament (Musket-Sissie), Ionic (Dauphin-Ina), The Australian (Tregeagle - Ordeal), Lionel (Leolinus—Petroleuse), Eros (St. George-Idalia). "Mr. Keswick's" two-year-old colt Galant (Ingomar— Atlantis) was also paraded for show. In draught stock there were Nugget II., Wellington II. and Nobleman II. The Unusual interest is again being manifested in Hawke's Bay in the Melbourne Cup this year owing to the fact that we are being represented by Tirailleur, the horse that seems to have forgotten how to gallop since the day he left the land of his birth. He has again been backed for a lot of money, both in doubles and straight out, there being always people found who are willing to back the Hawke's Bay Guineas winner, no matter at what price. A great many have backed him because they think he has never been properly well until now; others have invested on him because they did so before and are desirous of following him up; others again are having a shot purely out of sentiment, Tirailleur being a local horse; while others—including knowing men is being rapidly got into apple-pie order for the Spring Meeting. A balcony has been erected in front of the stand which will accommodate a large number of people. The Press reporters have been specially provided for, and the telegraph office has been enlarged. The saddling paddock has been materially extended and the lawn and course look in fine trim. All the trees which bound the course have been lopped, and various other improvements effected.

HAWKE'S BAY JOCKEY CLUB'S SPRING MEETING.

THE ever-popular Hawke's Bay Jockey Club will open their operations for the column alludes to the aspect of the H.B. J.C.'s enclosure, and notes several improvements thereto since racing was last held there in June. The acceptances and general entries are published in another column of this issue, and given fine weather there can be no doubt that the Metropolitan Club of the Hawke's Bay district will have a good time of it for the inauguration of the new season's racing under their auspices.

The Hurdle Race has half-a-dozen acceptors, and I fancy that Gondolier will start first favourite, but it is his maiden essay over hurdles, backers should not fail to remember, and I expect him to go down before KAIMANAWA, next to whom I fancy Viola II.

I certainly expected more than a quintette to pay up for the Hawke's Bay Guineas, but there is one thing to be observed-each of the acceptors is running in a different interest, and each of them had good credentials last season. The Guineas has been a favourite race with Mr. Stead before now, and therefore I was not surprised to find him pay up for Stepniak, although after the son of Nordenfeldt not starting for the Timaru Guineas, and the reports of some ailment affeoting him that reached here frem the South, I thought the registered owner of the yellow jacket would have relied on Hybrid. Though Stepniak ran well in thetearlier part of last season he seemed to stand still towards the latter end, and unless he has come on considerably I think he will be badly beaten on this occasion. In St. Hippo and North Atlantic he has a pair of daisy clippers to meet, and I would point out to backers that North Atlantic gets a gelding allowance of 5lb. We have already seen St. Hippo in great form this season, but we have yet to see whether North Atlantic has improved from a twoyear-old to a three-year-old. Did I see him delivered fit and well at the post I would have him and nothing else, but as it is, I am compelled with the form that St. Hippo has displayed so far this season, to think that whatever beats the son of St. Leger and Hippona will win. And I think the one that will perform that feat is one of the weaker sex, which sex is represented in the race by a couple -St. Katherine and Variety. Bothshowed some good form last season, but St. Katherine's form was better than that of Natator's daughter, and it is this daughter of Stonyhurst that I opine will effect the overthrow of St. Hippo, who is pretty certain to start a warm favourite. Last season St. Katherine won half-a-dozen races, some of them in really good company and with big weights up, and, going on the supposition that she has improved as should be expected, I shall tip to get home in front of St. Hippo and NORTH ATLANTIC in the Hawke's Bay Guineas.

ST. KATHERINE

The Maiden Plate of a mile and aquarter is next in order on the card, and has the creditable entry of ten. A lot of interest will be attached thereto by the presence of several youngsters whose first appearance in public it will be, and the issue will take a lot of picking. Tipping in the dark, so to speak, for "maidens" at the commencement of a new season, takes a bit of sorting out, but I shall select Mr. W. Douglas' filly UA to win, with Spinfeldt next best.

The Welcome Stakes, for two-yearolds, might reasonably have been expected to attract a bigger entry than half a dozen, all of whom are North Islanders xeept Mr. Stead's colt Geraint, who is by Lochiel out of Sir Modred's half-sister Enid. Like his dam, this colt is a bit on the small side, but looked like coming early when I last saw him, and I think ST. CECELIA and GERAINT will be the pair most prominent at the finish. The handicap for the Corinthian Stakes is not to hand at the time of writing, so I pass on to the Flying Handicap, for which the capital acceptance of fifteen has been received. Cynisca heads the poll at 9.7, and over the six furlongs will take some beating, more especially as a victory will not entail any penalty in the New Zealand Cup. The Dancer at 8.11 has to be very much reckoned with after that merry six furlongs he cut out at the Auckland Spring Meeting with 51b more in the saddle. I do not care for Thame, but I like St. Hippo at 7.11, the more so as even if he win the Guineas he gets no penalty. Of the pair in at 7:12 I would sooner stand Dreamland than Heather Bell, but I do not care for either Swivel, Pearl Powder, Variety or Rangiatea. From all I hear of Esca she is the only one of the bottom weights that has a show, but I shall select THE DANCER

DREAMLAND in the other places.

On the second day the only event with which I can deal is the Spring Handicap of a mile and a half, which will of course be a good deal affected by the first day's Should St. Hippo win the racing. Guineas he will get a 71b. penalty, bringing his weight up to 8.0, which should stop him, and in that case The Dancer will be well worth standing by. Even at the weights as they stand at present I like the roan son of Sword Dance as well as anything at 7.12 - a weight which will not be increased should he prove the best of the Flying Handicap lot. Rosefeldt with 11b less is dangerous, but bar her, I am not particularly partial to anything but St. Hippo and Huerfana, and for easons mentioned above I am inclined to pass the Aucklander by. I will therefore sum up by saying that I think the places will be filled by THE DANCER, ROSEFELDT and HUERFANA, and I expect them to finish in that order.

As regards the other events, I may remark that 12 have been entered for the October Handicap, 10 for the Second Hurdles, 16 for the Trial Handicap, 7 for the Nursery Handicap, the same for the Corinthian Stakes, 11 for the Welter Handicap, and 11 for the Final Handicap.

AUCKLAND RACING OLUB'S SPRING MEETING.

THE nominations for three of the events of this meeting, which comes off on November 9th and 10th, were received on Friday evening, with the result that 20 were entered for the Prince of Wales Handicap, 13 for the Hurdles, and 27 for the City Handicap. This must be considered a very satisfactory entry, more especially as all are local nags. Included in the list for the flat races are the N.Z. Cup candidates Morion and Coalscuttle. The weights for the Prince of Wales Handicap and Hurdles are due on the 7th prox.

AUCKLAND RACING CLUB'S SUMMER MEETING.

ON Friday night there also closed the entries for the Auckland Cup, R.C. Handicap, and Steeplechase, and here again Mr. Percival had to present most satisfactory lists. There were 36 nominated for the Auckland Cup, 40 for the A.R.C. Handicap, and 23 for the Steeplechase----an increase all round on last year's figures. In the Cup the South Island is represented by Lebel, Stepniak, Clanranald, Crown Jewel, Crackshot, and Au Revoir, and in the Steeplechase by Christmas. The weights for the Cup and Steeplechase are due on December 1st.

to get home first, with CYNISCA and that will not materially affect his chance, and he was at once backed from 100 to 8 upwards, being now fairly quotable at 100 to 12, which makes him second favourite. Prime Warden is, however, firmer than ever. He is quoted this week at 100 to 14, but as a matter of fact it is hard to say what his price really is. Several of the books are full about him, and others are holding on for fancy prices. A horse that has been supported during the week is Boulanger, and there are signs that he will further shorten. The other principal alterations in the odds are that Dilemma, Lebel and Stepniak are a trifle easier, while St. Hippo, who escapes a penalty by his win on Saturday, has advanced a couple of points".

The results of the Otago Hunt Club and South Canterbury Jockey Clubs Meetings had the effect of livening up the Christchurch and Dunedin book-makers, and the Canterbury Times of last Thursday reports the following quotations there on the 21st inst. :-

FOOTBALL.

AUCKLAND had an easy win over Wairoa by 26 to 6 points. In the first spell Masefield, Gaudin, and Braund secured tries, and Stone, besides placing two of them, also put over a penalty kick. Keen scored for Wairoa, and the spell ended-Auckland 15, Wairoa 2. In the second spell Bruce, Braund, Ronayne, and Blewden scored tries, but Stone could convert only one. Absolum and Lowry scored for Wairoa, but the places were fruitless.

On Saturday the flagging interest in football will receive a stimulus by the match between Ponsonby and Parnell which should be a close and exciting If Ponsonby score a win, a final game. match for the Cup will have to be played. The proceeds will be given to a charitable purpose.

WELLINGTON, Sept. 27.

The Wellington reps. met the Manawatu reps. on the Newtown Park last Saturday afternoon, when, after a well-contested game, the former proved vic-torious by 13 points to nil. The ground was again soft, which of course prevented any really good football being exhibited. The Wellington team was without the services of Ellison, who owing to an injury to his ankle was unable to play. His place was filled by Roberts, who acquitted himself remarkably well, his kicking and collaring being splendidly performed. The Wellingtons, as a team, did not show that amount of dash that was exhibited against Canterbury, their passing and combination being somewhat weak compared to that shown in the latter match. The Manawatus played a rattling game, and very often gave the Blacks a deal of trouble, especially in the first spell, when they had the wind in their favour, and were in close prox-imity to the Wellington line. The The latter's defence was good, the backs being very smart at times, displaying good football and knowledge of the finer parts of the game. Immediately after the kick out the ball was carried to the Blacks' quarters, where J. Robinson was awarded a free kick. The ball was placed but nothing resulted, and the Blacks carried it again to neutral territory, where Speed obtained possession and was splendidly brought down by Baker, the fast Wellington three-quarter. away, and was on every occasion floored by Baker, who was playing brilliantly. The Marcons continued to press the Blacks, Matheson and Mowlen being especially prominent, but presently Gage, by a smart piece of play, removed the game to the visitors' side of the field, Speed and Robinson quickly bringing the leather back, but a fine passing rush between Roberts, Lee, Gage and Baumber removed the ball to the Marcons' 25 for the first time. The Blacks now worked hard, straining every muscle to score, and eventually succeeding, Wynyard getting over after a severe struggle. The remainder of the spell was in favour of the visitors, who had played very consistently all through.

The opening of the second term was noted for the dash and energy displayed by the Blacks, who to all appearances meant to give the Marcons a lively time of it. Presently the ball was inside the visitors' 25 flag, where Gage obtained possession, and, after a tricky run, scored, Lee making a poor attempt at goal. On resuming, the Manawatus worked hard, and removed the leather to the Blacks' division, where Duncan, had he been supported, most certainly would have scored. The Blacks gradually brought the leather back to the visitors' ground, where Oliphant obtained possession, and although he could have got in, passed to Baker, who potted an undeniable goal from the 25 flag. Wellington, 8 points; Manawatu, 0. Following the kick-off the Maroons again pressed the Wellington, Jewel making a fine run before he was collared. Cockroft headed a rush near the Manawatu quarter, and Wynyard, getting possession, passed to White, who scored under the posts. Baumber placed a splendid goal—Wellington, 13 points; Manawatu, 0. After this, Wellington seemed to take matters very comfortably. their play being anything but good. Presently White passed the ball to Baker, who immediately got under way, but was quickly brought down by Speed. The play for the remainder of the spell was not interesting, both teams seemingly having enough of it, and the spell closed with the score—Welling-ton. 13; Manawatu, 0.

It must be said of the Wellington team that their passing and combination have undoubtedly won for them all their matches this season, being far and away superior to any yet shown by a Wellington representative team.

CRICKET.

THE cricket season opened on Saturday last with an interesting match between Williamson's Opera Company and an eleven of Auckland. A somewhat damp and bleak day was the only drawback, but, nevertheless, a large attendance enjoyed some wonderfully good cricket, a dead ground and want of practice being considered. The match ended in a draw, but seeing that the Auckland team was a hot one to pit against our theatrical friends—indeed it was not far off being a representative eleven—the splendid stand made speaks volumes for the cricketing ability of Mr. Williamson's company. The ladies of the company mustered in force, and the pavilion presented a most attractive coup d'ail. Alternoon tea was provided and was much appreciated. Auckland won the toss, but sent their opponents to the wickets, Messrs Leslie and Rice facing the bowling of R. Neill eslie afters Stemson. form, succumbed to a hot one from Stemson. Ford joined Rice, and the pair gave an excellent display of batting until Neill bowled Rice with a cunning one. The outgoing batsman played sterling and patient cricket, keeping up his wicket for upwards of half an hour for 8 runs. Deane, the crack batsman of the team, joined Ford, and the pair by good hitting raised the score to 45, when Deane was l.b.w. to Lawson, who had taken the ball from Neill. Neilson joined Ford, and another stand occurred until Lundon clean bowled Ford-58-4-21. Ramage followed, but after making 2 was clean bowled by Lawson with a full pitch. The next man, Watson, fell to Lundon after scoring a single-62-6-1. Stevens and Beaumont did not stay long, and 67-8-2 was on the board when genial Mr. Bracy joined Neilson, who after batting patiently and well at length fell to Lundon-71-9-16. Mr. Lauri, after making 2, met a similar fate. Mr. Bracy triumphantly carried out his bat, the innings closing for 73. Lundon had 5 wickets for 11, and Stemson 1 for 7; Lawson 3 for 27, Neill 1 for 27.

wickets, the match thus ending in a draw. Deane bowled splendidly, taking all the six wickets for 31. Watson disposed of Moresby with a splendid catch at long-on, and the Opera fielding was extremely good all round.

In threwing the cricket ball W. Howard, the new Gordon man, won with a throw of 89yds. 1ft. 8in., with Weston close up. Ford left the wickets and had one throw—an excellent one—but his duties prevented further attempts.

Roberts won the drop-kick with 52yds 1ft, Edmonds a yard behind second. A. G. Holland won the place-kick.

AUCKLAND CRICKET ASSOCIATION.

This body held their annual meeting at the British Hotel on Friday evening, under the chairmanship of Mr. B. J. Esam, one of the vice-presidents.

in presenting the tenth annual report, and would congratulate the members of the Association on the past season's cricket. The most important match was the fixture with Canterbury, played on our ground in March last, resulting in a win for Auckland by four wickets. This fixture has always been one of great im portance, and it will now be the duty of Auckland to return the visit as soon as possible. Unfortunately. although a fixture was arranged with Wellington to take place here, the match did not come off, the Wellington players being unable to leave the Empire City. For the seniors there were five competitors, and some of the matches were very close, the lot ultimately falling to the Auckland C.C., with an unbeaten record, to hold the first championships The junior competitions proved even more exciting, and after a tie the Auckland and Gordon played off, leaving Gordon possession of the trophies. There was not so much interest shown in the second juniors, the winners being the Belmont. The treasurer's statement, which will be read to you, shows that notwithstanding the heavy expenses your committee were put to during the past season, still we have a balance in hand, after discharging all liabilities, of £10 15s 8d. In order to create a greater interest in cricket, your committee have decided to hold a special opening day on September 24, by a match with the J. C. Williamson's Cricket Club, and with that combined with some sports, we trust to give the public a pleasant afternoon. The retiring committee regret that two of their very active members of committee, viz., Messrs. A. M. Beale and H. B. Lusk, have resigned, having left the district. In conclusion, we would specially ask your hearty co-operation during the coming season in order that Auckland may still uphold the honour of her cricketers." The balance-sheet showed that the total receipts for the year amounted to $\pounds101$ 14s 3d, and the expenditure to $\pounds82$ 18s 7d, leaving a credit balance of $\pounds10$

15s 8d. The report and balance-sheet were adopted.

Lankham, Yates, and Mumford had been asked to have their photographs taken so that they might be hung in the club-room. Mr. Lankham's portrait was now before them, and the others would Mr. Lankham briefly thanked the Club. After some discussion on matters of interest to cricketers and the passing of a vote of thanks to the Press of Auckland for the encouragement given by them to the game, and a vote to the Chairman, the meeting terminated.

ATHLETICS.

At a very successful meeting of the Auckland Amateur Athletic Club held at the British Hotel on Wednesday evening, Mr. James Coates declining re-election as president, accepted the position of a vice-president, to which he was unanimously elected. Mr. R. Garrett was elected president, and in him the club have a thorough athletic enthusiast, who will attend all meetings and support the club in every way. The report and balance-sheet, submitted and adopted, appeared in these columns last week.

The following officers were elected :-Patron, His Excellency the Earl of Glasgow; vice-patron, the Mayor (Mr. W. Crowther); president, Mr. R. Garrett; vice - presidents, Messrs. J. H. B. Coates, J. F. Logan, and B. J. Esam; secretary, Mr. J. Halyday, jun. (re-elected); treasurer, Mr. B. J. Esam (reelected); committee, Messrs. Speight, Upfill, McKinney, Hutchinson, Cooper, Burton, Smith, Powley, Edwards, Dixon, Nicholson, Service, and Lecky, the three last-named gentlemen being the repre-sentatives of the Cycle Club. Mr. A. T. Firth was elected captain, and Mr J. G. Firth handicapper, of the Cycle Club. It was decided to leave the appointment of general handicappers to the committee. It was decided to request the retiring president. Mr. Coates, to visit Mr. Edwards' photographic studio and have his portrait taken for the club - room. Votes of thanks were accorded the retiring president and committee, and the handicappers, and the sum of £10 was voted to the secretary for service rendered, and £5 each to the treasurer and two handicappers.

HUNTING.

THE Pakuranga Hunt Club have now abandoned hunting for the season, and have taken to drag hunting for the rest of the year. The meet on Saturday last was at 2 p.m. at Panmure, where the Master and his assistants were ready to receive their friends. This drag-hunt had been looked forward to for some time, as the country which was selected has been celebrated for many years in the annals of the club as being one of the stiffest and best lines which the hounds run over. As the season advances the Master evidently means, by the length of the runs and the size of the fences to give every facility to qualify horses and get them in condition for the approaching Club races. The line taken on this occasion was from Panmure round the base of Mount Wellington, crossing the Panmure Road and heading for Otahuhu, taking on the way a line across Sylvia Park. The fences were varied, and consisted of walls, drains, and post and rails. They were of such a size and substance that the greatest glutton had to cry content. On arriving at Otahuhu most of the riders and horses gave ample evidence of the length and severity of the run. After a halt, the Master once more put his horses in motion and took up a line from the main South Road leading for Mount Smart, thence across the One Tree Hill property towards the Onehunga Waterworks, finishing at the Royal Oak Hotel There were many casualties during the day, but none of a serious nature-in fact, considering the extent of country that was crossed we must congratulate the club upon having such a numerous following able to negociate such a class of obstacles. On our way home moralizing, we thought to ourselves what a benefit a club like the P.H.C. must confer upon the district by creating a demand for a decent class of horse, for at one time during this run we counted fully 50 horses negociating the country.

tances, including our most redoubtable knights of the trigger, have been received, so that a good day's sport may be relied upon. The cup to be competed for is a very handsome one, and is now on view at Mrs. Williamson's, tobacconist. The match will be shot off under the Hamley Gun Club rules.

La Flèche, who won the Doncaster Leger three weeks ago, was seen out on the last day of the Goodwood Meeting in the Nassau Stakes. According to the London Sportsman she stripped rather big, but in a fairly-run race she was always first or second, and when Broad Corrie challenged her below the distance she made such quick response that the verdict was obtained in the very best style. This created a great impression, and whereas 1000 to 100 had been laid a few times beforehand against her for the St. Leger, 8000 to 1000 was now booked in a bet, with 2 to 1 offered against Orme.

IT ACTED IN MY CASE LIKE MAGIC.

IT ACTED IN MY CASE LIKE MAGIC. The experience of Mrs. Dare, of Waiotahi Creek, Thames, should convince the most sceptical. She writes to us as follows:—" Having heard of the medicine sold by you under the name of 'Ye Bishop's Bottle,' and having gone through much suffering from rheumatism in my shoulder for a long time (so badly at times that I have been unable to raise my hand to my head), I was induced by a friend who happened to call, having a bottle of your wonderful medicine in their possession, to apply it to my shoulder, and to my surprise I found relief at once. It acted in my case like magic. I shall be glad for you to publish this, as there are many more sufferers who may be induced to try it and gain wonderful relief, as I have done. I have found it splendid for cuts and itchy spots on the skin."

USE IT FOR HEADACHES.

This is the advice of Mr. George Cooper, of Franklin-street, Thames. Being troubled with a severe headache be saturated a piece of rag with the liniment and applied it freely to his forehead. He says :-- "In less than two minutes the pain had completely vanished, to my surprise. I was very glad to have had it in the house after gaining such wonderful relief from it."
