The amount of Stakes paid away in connection with the Sydney Turf Club's Meeting was C1356. Mr F. Foy, with £311, was the largest winner, the result of the victory of Lord Ullin's Daughter, who was bred to English time with a view to sending her home, an intention that was not followed up. Aquatic men were entertained with a Sailing Carnival on the bosom of "our beautiful harbour" on Saturday and Monday, boats representing several of the States competing. With the advantthe States competing. With the advantages Sydney sailing men possess it was thought they would carry all before them, but it was not so. On Saturday the Interstate Championship for 14ft boats was won by the Queensland representative Violet, sailed by C. Crouch, Jessie (New South Wales), sailed by W. Read, was second, with Wandeen (New South Wales), sailed by G. Ellis, third. Thirteen boats competed. Queenslander and Cutty Sark collided at the start and retired from the contest. The winner was well handled and won by 1min 15 was well handled and won by 1min 15 sec. The 10ft Interstate Championship brought out fifteen starters, and was won by Crescent (New South Wales), sailed by C. Dunn, with Irex, Queensland (O. Homann), second, and Planet, New South Wales (L. Clarke), third. Crescent led throughout, but Irex was Crescent led throughout, but Irex was gaining rapidly on her in the run home. The New South Wales boat won by 29 sec. The Anniversary Regatta was continued on Monday. In the Dingies 14ft Scratch Race Queenslander (W. Spring) won, with Irex (W. J. Holmes) second, and Pastime (J. Emerson) third. Queenslander who mat with an accident on lander, who met with an accident on the first day, won by 2min 14sec. The programme was a lengthy one and interesting, but a deluge of rain in the afternoon made matters unpleasant for defeated the boy billiard player Lindrum by 1571 in 4800 up. Teague's average throughout was 18, and Lindrum's 13. Teague's best break was 132, and Lindrum's 111.
