JOSEPH EVANS - PROPRIETOR.

Hotel Commonwealth, New Plymouth

OPPOSITE RAILWAY STATION.

J. O'DRISCOLL (Late of Royal Hotel, Hawera), PROPRIETOR.

This new and commodious Hotel is lighted by electricity. Passengers by early steamers can always rely on getting breakfast before leaving by train. An electric bell will be rung in the dining-room five minutes before the departure of any passenger train from the station. Speight's Dunedin XXX Ale always on tap. Best wines and spirits retailed. Night porter in attendance. The kitchen is entirely under the supervision of Miss Moseong, late of Coker's Hotel, Christchurch. Terms on application.

Strachan's Dunedin Ale

has, in a wonderfully short space of time, become the favourite drink of all connoisseurs, who declare it equal to the best English Ale. It is bright, sparkling, invigorating, and a wonderful appetiser.

Strachan's Dunedin Stout

although only on the market a little time, it is competing successfully with other Brands, and on account of its superior quality as a tonic, is to be recommended for ladies and invalids.

EAST OF SCOTLAND PUBLIC HOUSE TRUST IN HOBART

ON the 8th May the Trust took over what was in stock of old and matured Clynelish whisky, than which there is no better in the market, and which was sold by the former lessee. This undoubtedly is a high-class whisky, and is distilled by Messrs AINSLIE & Co., Leith, in addition to this firm's other celebrated brands.
