

summons had been issued against the licensee on one of the charges.

Mr F. Earl (who appeared for Mr Taylor) challenged the report. He said if his instructions were correct he would be able to show that the action of the police towards this licensee had been tyrannous, oppressive, and amounting absolutely to depreciation of character, and such conduct the Licensing Committee, he was sure, would not countenance. He had six witnesses, and he was prepared to go on with the hearing of the objections.

Sub-Inspector Gordon: A summons has been issued against the licensee, and the licensee will have an ample opportunity of ventilating any grievances he has in the proper Court.

Mr Earl: I say, again, the conduct of the police towards my client amounts to positive persecution, if my information is correct.

Sub-Inspector Gordon: Your information is wrong.

Mr Earl said he had witnesses to back up his statements at any rate. Was it fair treatment, on the part of the police, that a summons on a charge alleged to have been committed on August 9, should not be served until September 3?

The Chairman: It is the duty of the police to state everything in connection with these houses that they know.

Mr Earl: Certainly; but is it not the duty of the police to take immediate steps, and not wait a month, and so prejudice my case before the committee.

Sub-Inspector Gordon said the case had been submitted to the Crown Prosecutor, and he had taken the steps which he considered proper. The police were not concerned with the actions of the Crown Prosecutor.

The Chairman suggested that the case should stand over.

Mr Earl said it would not be fair to his client.

Sub-Inspector Gordon: Mr Earl can show his hand if he likes, but we are not going to.

The Chairman said that he thought the case should stand down until the charge had been heard in the Court. The committee's action would be greatly dependent upon what the charge was in the Magistrate's Court, and how it was decided.

The committee decided that the case should stand over until the charge had been disposed of in the Court.

LIVER LETTERS.

From Mr H. W. Crisp, Rodd Street, Dandenong, Vic., 22nd January, 1904. Late of Thorpdale, Gippsland.

"For the past ten years I suffered from disease of the liver, experiencing a sense of weight as well as great pain in the region of the liver, especially in the night and early morning. I had tried various remedies, but without benefit, when Warner's Safe Cure was favourably brought to my notice. I decided to give that medicine a trial, and after taking a few bottles and some Warner's Safe Pills, I found great relief. The complaint was speedily checked and the pain ceased."

From Mr Albert Walker, c/o Mr F. J. Freame, Graham Street, Port Melbourne, Vic., 12th January, 1904.

"For years I was suffering from disease of the liver, that organ having become enlarged, causing physical prostration and mental depression. I also had severe pains in the back. The slightest touch or pressure on the liver would cause me the most excruciating pain. I was induced to try Warner's Safe Cure, and after taking three bottles of the medicine, my health was quite restored, and I became strong and vigorous again. I take great pleasure in recommending Warner's Safe Cure as a sure and speedy remedy for disease of the liver.

From Mr L. H. Howard, 8 Douglas Street, Stanmore, N.S.W., 25th January, 1904.

"I can speak in the highest terms of Warner's Safe Cure. About five years ago I suffered severely from liver complaint, in fact, all my digestive organs were seriously out of order. I tried all kinds of liver pills and various medicines, but only got very slight relief. Eventually I was advised by my chemist to try Warner's Safe Cure. This I did, with every satisfaction, for after taking four bottles, I was completely cured, and am now in the best of health."

From Mr James Moore, Lion Hotel, Melbourne Street, North Adelaide, S.A., 8th October, 1903.

"I have been suffering from biliousness and indigestion for several years until about two years ago, when I had a severe bilious fever, which prevented me from working for several weeks and kept me confined to my bed. The many medicines I tried did not seem to do me any good. At last I decided to take Warner's Safe Cure and Warner's Safe Pills. I took a few bottles of the former and a vial of the latter, when all symptoms of the complaint left me. Since then I have had no indication of the trouble. My appetite is excellent and my digestion perfect. I can now do more, and harder, work than ever before in my life."

From Miss E. Moncrieff Davidson, 1 Izett Street, Prahran, Vic., 5th January, 1904.

"It is with pleasure I acknowledge the amount of benefit I derived from taking Warner's Safe Cure and Warner's Safe Pills, when suffering from liver complaint, and other remedies had failed to do me any good. I had a constant disposition to sick headache, a prostrated, tired feeling, especially in the spring, and susceptibility to change of seasons, but since taking Warner's Safe Cure and Pills I have been free from all such symptoms."

From Mrs E. Howard, 31 Hyde Street, Adelaide, S.A., 7th October, 1903.

"I have suffered very much, at different times, for many years from liver complaint, indigestion, and general debility. At first I paid little attention, but getting worse as time went on, I began to fear that I was on the eve of a general constitutional break up. After trying various medicines without benefit, I heard of Warner's Safe Cure. On enquiry, I found that many of my friends had taken this medicine with great and lasting benefit. Hearing such glowing accounts of the medicine I decided to give it a trial. It gave me almost immediate relief. In a few weeks I was quite cured, and have had no trouble of the kind since."

From Mr J. W. Reid, Grocer, etc., Manchester House, 171 Johnston Street, Collingwood Vic., 14th January, 1904.

"Having suffered from liver complaint for many years, and found no successful remedy in doctors' medicines, I have on three different occasions taken Warner's Safe Cure with most happy results. The first time, after taking four bottles, I was completely restored, the second time, about five years afterwards, same result with three bottles, and I am taking it now with every evidence of the same success as before. I merely wish to testify to the efficacy of your invaluable medicine, and will certainly recommend it to all to whom it may be a boon."

TEED'S

MR. M. OLSEN, a well-known settler in Egmont Village, Taranaki, says:—"I was a cripple from a corn of over thirty years' standing, and ridiculed any idea of a cure, yet was induced to use TEED'S. The result was my corn was extracted more like bone than flesh, and my foot left painless. I am indeed gratified. Mr. Teed deserves well of posterity. I would like to erect a monument for his discovery."

From Mr W. F. Stanley, 5 Napier Street, Paddington, N.S.W., 19th September, 1903.

"I have much pleasure in giving my experience as to what Warner's Safe Cure did for me. I suffered from constipated bowels and severe pains in my stomach. I was in the hospital three times, but the treatment there seemed to do me no permanent good. Finally I was advised to give Warner's Safe Cure a trial. I did so and after taking two bottles, can honestly say I am cured."

As many people find it difficult to understand why Warner's Safe Cure cures, as it does, complaints seemingly so different in character as Indigestion, Rheumatism, Biliousness, Gout, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Sciatica, Anaemia, Debility, Blood Disorders, Gravel, Bladder Troubles, an explanation is, perhaps, necessary.

Warner's Safe Cure is primarily a specific cure for all diseases of the kidneys and liver, even Bright's Disease, the most fatal of all diseases of the kidneys, yielding to its curative properties.

Now, all the complaints above mentioned have but one origin, namely, the inability of the kidneys and liver to perform their work of removing from the system uric acid and other urinary and biliary poisons. When such poisons are retained in the body the development of one or more of the disorders set forth is the result.

Warner's Safe Cure restores the kidneys and liver to health and activity, and enables them to fulfil their allotted task of extracting these poisonous waste products from the blood, and expelling them from the body in a natural manner.

As a consequence, all disorders caused by the presence of such poisons are necessarily cured.
