

week, after the acceptances are out, to make definite selections.

Irish Rifle is doing good work on the local track. The half-brother to Shrapnel is endowed with a great dash of pace, and should score a win or two shortly.

TARANAKI.

Volume, Liable and Glenullin were shipped to Auckland on Wednesday last to fulfil their engagements at the spring meeting of the Auckland Racing Club. Volume, who is by Sylvia Park out of Lottie, is a very promising colt, and should pay his expenses to the meeting.

The Soult-Inamorata colt Ney has accompanied Paritutu to Riccarton. Multifid also has Grenade as travelling companion. The Grafton horse was looking exceedingly well before leaving for South, and in fact was galloping better than his stablemate Multifid.

Rustique will be a competitor at the Auckland meeting, and is expected to leave here during the week.

J. George has Cyrano and Confide doing slow work. Crusoe is still out enjoying a spell.

Several local sports profited by Clementine's win on the second day of the North Otago meeting. When the St. Clements mare was owned by Dr. Paget at Stratford, she ran very consistently, and was considered pretty slippery over a short distance. It was therefore a very pleasant surprise when it became known that the dividend was £20 12s.

Local betting on the New Zealand Cup is almost entirely confined to Paritutu, and the best price obtainable here now is 3 to 1.
