must on recent form have gone very close to doing. I understand that he has gone wrong in the pastern joint.

Irish Rifle is being kept gong, and all going well will be a starter at the Feilding meeting, where he figures amongst the entrants for the big money the first day. If treated at all leniently by the handicapper the son of Musketry may be depended upon to be very handy at the finish in whatever event he next faces the starter. The Waverley-Waitotara Racing Club hold their annual meeting on Saturday (the King's Birthday). The acceptances received by the club are remarkably good, and show that Mr. George Morse's adjustments gave very general satisfac-tion. Latest reports from Waverley are to the effect that the course is looking very well, and there is every prospect of it being in tip-top cond tion for the gathering, which will, providing the weather is fine, eclipse the most successful of all meetings hitherto held by this popular country club. The racing gives every indication of being very interesting, as big fields are assured, and the winners will take a lot of sorting out. Mr. J. W. Emmerson, the secretary, has everything aranged for the proper conduct of the meeting, and it is safe to anticipate that he will have the satisfaction of seeing a record attendance. Wanganui will, as usual, be very strongly represented, this gathering being the only attraction for holiday-makers here. The following should run well in their respective engagements :-Morton Memorial: Billow and Muskerado.

Flying: Explode and Climax. Hurdle: Janella and Showman. Cup: Daisy Paul and White Star

Momohaki Handicap: Fshermaid and Hurimoana.
Prince of Wa'es' Handicap: Kareroa

and Zoraida.

Wilson Stakes: The Boyne and Dusky Morn.

Jackson Stakes: Dusky Morn (if started) and Supplement.

The Wanganui Jockey Club's Committee have not yet finished with their inquiry into the circumstances connected with the opening race at the recent Ran-gitikei meeting, and have asked Mr. J. Coyle, owner of The Stake, winner of that event, to attend at a meeting and answer a few questions. What the upshot of the whole affair will be is hard to say, but it very satisfactory to note that the Wanganui Committee are determined to unravel the whole of the mystery attaching to the contest.

against Welcome Trist and Master Foote.

Peru led out of the straight from Tangaroa, Lady Rylstone, Master Foote, Mountain King, and Welcome Trist following in that order. Along the back the pace was put on, and Tangaroa took up the running, leading Peru by a couple of lengths, who in turn was clear of Mountain King, then came Master Foote, Lady Rylstone, Welcome Trist, and Mazarin. As the field approached the home turn Mountain King on the outside ran to the front, with Tangaroa lying second. At the distance, both Peru and Welcome Trist cut down the latter, but they could make no impression on the favourite, who won by a length, a head separating Peru from Welcome Trist, Time, 2m. 39s.
