

The half-sister (by St. Ambrose) to Bunyan, which Mr. F. Preston bought whilst attending the Cup meeting, is a very fine looking filly.

Nightmare, the sister to The Lark and Polycaste, is amongst the acceptors for the Hack Flying at Feilding.

Kremlin and Wirral are both said to have broken down.

Armistice, Helen Portland, and Guiding Step are being treated to a short spell. All going well the former will be taken to Auckland for the Cup race.

Irish Rifle is now being trained by Walter Raynor. The Musketry gelding looks in excellent nick, and should pick up a stake at Feilding.

Since he came back from Christchurch Maniapoto has been doing good work, and is expected to be a much improved horse at Feilding than he was at the Cup meeting.

Great interest is being taken in the Feilding Stakes, in which event Fleetfoot, Armlet and Lord Soult will in all probability meet again.

The Feilding Jockey Club's Spring Meeting opens next Friday, and will be concluded on Saturday.

The South Canterbury Jockey Club's November meeting was held on Wednesday in fine weather. The attendance was fair and the racing excellent.

The Otahuhu Trotting Club's spring meeting was brought to a conclusion on Saturday last in fine weather.
