

the Hawera recourse, owing to both the new and the old courses at Patea being unfit to race upon.

The Wanganui Trotting Club are out with a fine programme for their two days' meeting, to be held on the 22nd and 24th April.

The night's solid rain, experienced here last Friday was badly needed, as the tracks were very hard, and trying on the horses.

By the way, a statement has been published that the times recorded on the second day of the Wanganui meeting were not to be relied upon, as there was some doubt as to the distances being correct on the No. 1 training track which was used.

Information is to hand from Australia to the effect that Signor might have won the Champion Stakes had his rider (R. Cameron) not stopped riding him five lengths from home, after the son of Pilgrim's Progress had repassed Pendill.

The Wanganui Jockey Club's committee have had several proposals for the improvement of the racing track, or that part of it where the going was so bad at the recent meeting, under consideration, but it is probable that before anything in the nature of returning the bad portion is attempted, an effort will be made to secure good results by having the track systematically watered.

The Sylvia Park colt Ecologue is now an inmate of A. Atwood's stable at Feilding, where his owner (Mr. O'Neill) has recently taken over an hotel.

There is every likelihood of Wanganui being well represented at the forthcoming Taranaki meeting, as amongst those entered for that gathering are Maniapoto, Tan San, Belario, Shannon Lass, Retort, Research, Whimper, and Overtime.

The Wanganui Jockey Club made a profit of over £1000 on the Cup meeting.

WELLINGTON.

WELLINGTON, March 17.

The Porirua stable was represented at the Dannevirke Autumn Meeting by Kurawaka, Hereward, and the 2-year-old filly Latchet.

Mr. Prosser has engaged Taitoko, Kurawaka, Hereward, Waimaria and Taurira at the Masterton Autumn Meeting.

Gold Crest will go into retirement for the winter. One of his fore legs bears a rather suspicious appearance, and his mentor deems it unwise to tax him further this season.

All Red is as blooming as a 2-year-old, and all going well, will be a runner at the A.R.C. Easter race meeting.

The Otaki Racing Club has once more increased their stake money for the principal event, the Kaukawa Cup, run at the club's Winter Meeting.

The Stewards' Handicap winner, Penates, is reported as under a cloud. The big son of Ruenalf has not been seen at his best for several months, and in all probability will not be prepared for Easter events.

C. Pritchard, whose team is quartered at the Lower Hutt, and who trains on the old Hutt Park tracks, took the hack hurdler Whatakura to Dannevirke, but the Lithe gelding did not look forward enough for racing and ran badly on both days.

Sir Frisco is being indulged in a respite from work. Truganini, Iranui and Effort have been allowed an easy time since their return from Dunedin and may not be raced pending their trainer's return from Sydney.
