The One Mile Handicap proved to be a very The One Mule Handreap proved to be a v-ry hollow affair, J. Kean, 80 yards, winning by sometLing like 90 yards. Piro-Piro and Far-quabar, however, furnished, a good contest for second place The Maori got the verdict by about half a yard after a fine finish up the straight.

Time, 4min 41sec A. R. Downer having intimated that he has decided to give up running, E C. Bredin has issued a challenge to run any man in the world 440;ds for £100 a side and the championship.

The pedestrian events at the Auckland Cycling Club's sports were well contested with the exception of the Mile Handicap which was a very hollow affair as far as the winner was concerned.

The Auckland Handicap of three distances was the principal pedestrian event of the day. Each distance was run in heats. The winners of Each distance was run in heats. the distances were ;-100yds, H. Fernley, 54yds beat Hindman by half a yard, Smith third.

Time, 10sec. 200yds :- H. Fernley, 10yds, won by a yard from Smith, George third. Time, 204 5acc.

300yds:-W? G. Abbott, 10yds, beat H. M.
Smith, 24yds. and T. George, 17yde, was third.
Time, 32 4 5acc. The result was thus:-H.
Fernley I, W. G. Abbott 2, and H. M. Smith 3.
Other that Mills Handian physical phy The Half Mile Handicap broughtout a field of seven. The limit man, Turner, led by twenty yards at the end of the first lap, but when Farquhar closed up at the back stretch he cried enough. Farquhar came on into the straight and won comfortably from W. L. Dutton, 30yds, and Piro-Piro, scratch Time, 2min 5 1-5sec. In spite of the efforts made by the English A.A.A. to purify the sport some years ago, when Bredin and other well known men had to throw in their lot with cash runners, everything is by no means as it should be in regard to betting and accepting expenses, etc. One of the champions, for instance, thinks nothing of asking for expenses when running at a meeting.

The management committee of the Auckland Amsteur Athletic Olub met last Friday evening Amateur Ainstein Olub Booms. Mr O. K. Mc-cornick presided. Mr Mahon wrote stating that he would be pleased to judge the walks. Mr W. B. Eyre was re-appointed handicapper to the Olub. It was decided to place a 120 yards Invitation Scratch Hurdle Race on the programme. Mr J. Tizard, the Australian crack distance, runner was announced to be a competitor at the forthcoming meeting. Several new members were elected.

At Wishaw on September 1st, the Twentyfive Mile Amateur Championship of Scotland was decided, when J. Brownlee, East Stirling-shire B.C., won by a yard, with W. N. O'Neill, Northern C.C., second, and J. Miller, Greenhead C.O., close up third. Time, 1hr 15min 24 4-5
