SUBJECTS OF MOST DREADFUL EXHAUSTION CURED AND MADE HAPPY.

MY DEAR DOCTOR,—I have no hesitation whatever in saying "Yes" in reply to your letter received to-day, in which you ask me whether I am willing to let the public know the benefit I received at your hands. When I saw you upon the recommendation of Mr Griffith (whom you had previously completely cured of a similar complaint), I think I was in about as bad a state of misery and depression in both mind and body as any human being could be; in fact, I thought life was not worth living, and my future was a blank. I was an object of misery and despair. Well, I called upon you, and you spoke some kind cheering words to me and pointed out the cause of all these troubles and the grave character of the follies of my youth. You told me plainly and honestly that you could and would cure vigours of manhood, so that I should no longer be bashful and stupid in society, and could take my part and interest in the amusements and sports of others and have an ambition in my business. At first I thought your promise was too good to be true. I am thankful to say I tried your treatment. I swear solemnly I feel a different man to-day. I have put on flesh and muscle and have any amount of confidence in myself. I am perfectly healthy and quite happy, and capable of enjoying myself as others do, and I don't mope about by myself and shun society. I earnestly recommend all my fellow sufferers to put their confidence in you, as your treatment is perfect and your charges are small.—I am, yours truly,
LACHLAN CAMERON.
