

THE END OF THE FAMOUS SIEGE OF THE AUSTRIAN FORTRESS, PRZEMYSL—THE RUSSIANS COME IN AND THE AUSTRIANS GO OUT. Our Allies looked well and happy, the enemy ill and dejected.

POSTING A RUSSIAN NOTICE IN A LEADING STREET IN PRZEMYSL BELONGS TO THE AUSTRIANS.

AFTER THE SIEGE AND FALL OF THE AUSTRIAN FORTRESS PRZEMYSL.—RUSSIAN SOLDIERS FEED THE AUSTRIANS WITH BREAD BEFORE SENDING THEM TO CAPTIVITY. The Russians' kindness to their prisoners affords a striking contrast to the inhuman German treatment of those who are unfortunate enough to fall into their hands.

THE SURRENDER OF THE AUSTRIAN GARRISON AT PRZEMYSL. The part of 100,000 men in vain attempts to take the fortress by storm, they wait for wastage and famine to deliver it into their hands. The Austrians' attempts to break through the encircling lines, while further losses in the town, The picture shows the garrison marching out of the town after the surrender, officers being taken prisoner by the Russians.
