

OFFICERS OF THE AUSTRIAN GARRISON ON THE WAY TO THE RAILWAY STATION. They drove, of course, having commandeered every available vehicle for their own use. The men, even if wounded, had to walk to Lemberg.

WEARY AND HUNGRY AUSTRIAN PRISONERS ON THEIR WAY TO OF PRZEMYSL. The 60 miles journey was accomplished through the snow in a famished condition after their starvation period during the AUSTRIAN SOLDIERS PUSHING CARTLOADS OF BREAD INTO THE TOWN FOR THE RELIEF OF THEIR COMRADES.

THE WRECKED BRIDGE ACROSS THE WIAR. Its destruction the day the Austrian garrison at Przemyśl delayed food being sent to the garrison which had 4000 officers.