

RANJI'S HOSPITAL FOR WOUNDED OFFICERS.—The Maharajah Jam Sahib of Nawangar, better known as "Ranji," the famous Indian cricketer, has made a splendid gift of his river residence, Jamnagar, at Staines, England, to the King as a hospital for wounded officers. The hospital stands in beautiful grounds, and the entire cost of the equipment has been covered by "Ranji."

BRITISH TOMMIES AT A FRENCH MARKET. THEY ARE EVIDENTLY ENJOYING THE LANGUAGE LESSON.

GROUP OF WOUNDED BRITISHERS, INCLUDING SEVERAL AUSTRALIANS AND NEW ZEALANDERS, AT THE HOSPITAL, MALTA, AFTER PARTICIPATING IN THE FIGHTING AT THE DARDANELLES.

AN INTERESTING PHOTOGRAPH TAKEN AMONG THE RUINS IN LA GRANDE RUE DE SERMAIZE LES BAINS, IN THE NORTH OF FRANCE.