

The beautiful Festival Hall at the Panama-Pacific Exposition, which contained the fine organ, on which Mr. Harold Gregson, the Auckland organist, was so singularly successful during his visit to the United States.

MENNETTI AND SIDELLI, clever knockabout comedians, who will make their appearance at His Majesty's Theatre, Auckland, on Saturday evening (September 16) with the Horace Goldin Company.

MISS AGNES HEALY, of "The Bing Boys," in charge of DAGONET, the smallest pony in the world, and little MISS ELSIE COLIN, who plays in "The Happy Day" at Daly's Theatre, collecting for the Orphanage Fund at the theatrical garden party in London.

LILY, the Bengal tiger, which figures in the great illusion, "The Tiger God," to be staged by Horace Goldin, who opens his Auckland season at His Majesty's Theatre on Saturday night next, September 16.

CUMBY AND BROWN, coloured comedians, appearing at the Auckland Opera House.

MR. VAL ATKINSON, of Auckland, general manager and producer of the original nautical sketch "Gens., or Jack on Leave," recently staged in Bombay, India, by members of the H.M.S. Philomel.