

TOURIST AND TRAVEL.

The Prime Minister (Hon. W. F. Massey) does not think it will be feasible to adopt the suggestion of the member for Auckland West (Mr. Poole), that a gift of a tin of butter be sent to every New Zealand soldier. The difficulties of transport and distribution are too great.

A Press Association cable message from Sydney announces the death of Mr. J. Haines, an ex-M.L.C. and one of the founders of the "Bulletin."

An inmate of Newington Workhouse, Southwark, Thomas Handcock, aged 74, claims to be heir to about £8000, left by an uncle, William Handcock, who died in Australia a month or two ago. The Southwark guardians think so well of the old man's claim that they have instructed a firm of solicitors to act on his behalf.

WHAT AUSTRALIA THINKS!

Hean's Essence, the great money-saving cough, cold, catarrh and sore throat remedy, belongs to New Zealand. The idea of putting up a good remedy in "essence" form originated with a family chemist, G. W. Hean, of Wanganui, where its headquarters still remain. New Zealand proved the quality of Hean's Essence, and uses thousands of bottles a year.

The Great Commonwealth of Australia heard of Hean's Essence, and demanded its supply. Read the following samples of hundreds of letters received from there:—

"Hean's Essence makes a splendid cough and cold remedy. We always keep it in the house.—Mrs. John Bruce, Bombala, N.S.W."

"Hean's Essence is the best cough and sore throat mixture I have used, and, because of its quality, is the cheapest on the market.—Mrs. E. J. Agar, Berry, N.S.W."

"I received the bottle of Hean's Essence, for which I thank you. The mixture I made from the Essence has cured my cough. I think it is just splendid.—Mrs. S. J. Hasell, Carant, Victoria."

"I have much pleasure in recommending Hean's Essence for colds and coughs. I used nothing else for my children in whooping cough, and found it most beneficial. No mother should be without it.—Mrs. B. Smith, Waterbein Street, Brisbane, Q."

"We find the remedy we make from Hean's Essence to be a really good cough and sore throat medicine. Please post two more bottles for the 4s. enclosed.—Mrs. Thomas North, West Montagu, Tasmania."

Use Hean's Essence in your own home. One bottle will make a pint of the best cough remedy you can possibly buy, and save 10s. for your pocket. Sold by chemists and stores, or post free to your address on receipt of price, 2s., from Hean's Pharmacy, Wanganui. 18

An officer of the Defence Dept. writes: "There is no doubt that the low rate of sickness (despite the severe weather) at the Takapau Camp was largely due to the quantity of 'Fluenzol' consumed by all ranks."
