

EXPLOSION OF INCENDIARY GRENADES SEEN AT A DISTANCE OF 200 METRES. The flames look like the growth of a weird plant that grows at the bottom of the sea.

WIRELESS TELEGRAPHY AT A GERMAN STATION. The station of the Wireless Telegraphy Society at Nauen, in Germany, is able to send and receive telegrams from a distance of 10,000 miles. Our illustration shows an aspect of the southern tower, which measures 260 metres.

A DEMONSTRATION OF WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO A SUBMARINE MINE. The old hull is shown in the danger zone with a view of the sea.

A PROUD MOMENT IN THE LIFE OF A GALLANT ENGLISH SOLDIER. SERGEANT WAY, of the Devons, being decorated by the King at Reading War Hospital. Her Majesty, Queen Mary, is shown on right of the picture.

THE KING AND QUEEN PAY A VISIT TO THE WOUNDED AT READING. walking through the grounds of the Reading War Hospital with Colonel Mc...