

A SPLendid LEAP DURING THE CHARITY FAIR RECENTLY HELD AT THE ROYAL HOSPITAL, DUBLIN, IRELAND. MISS DUFF, ON BUBBLES, CLEARS A FORMIDABLE OBSTACLE IN FINE STYLE. The Grand Charity Fair, which took place in the grounds of the Royal Hospital, Dublin, was opened by the Lord Lieutenant, Field Marshal Lord French, and proved a great success. The carnival was held with the object of swelling the funds of the Red Cross, Irish prisoners of war and other war time organisations.

LANCE-CORP. WILLIAM LESLIE, of Whangarei, North Auckland. Killed in action.

LANCE-CORP. TREVOR R. KNOT, of Ponsonby, Auckland. Died from sickness.

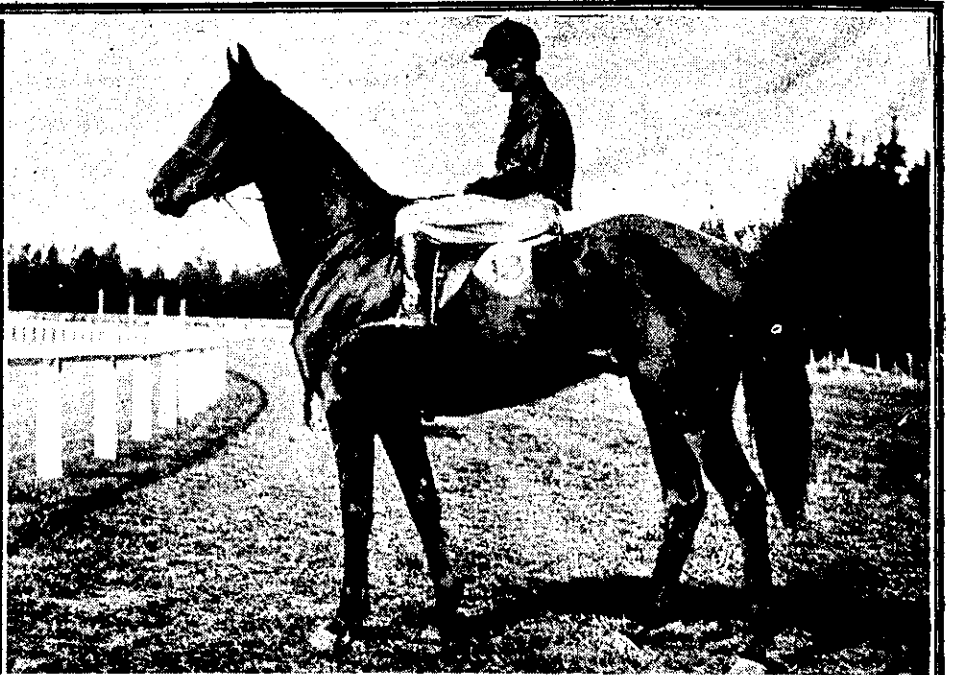

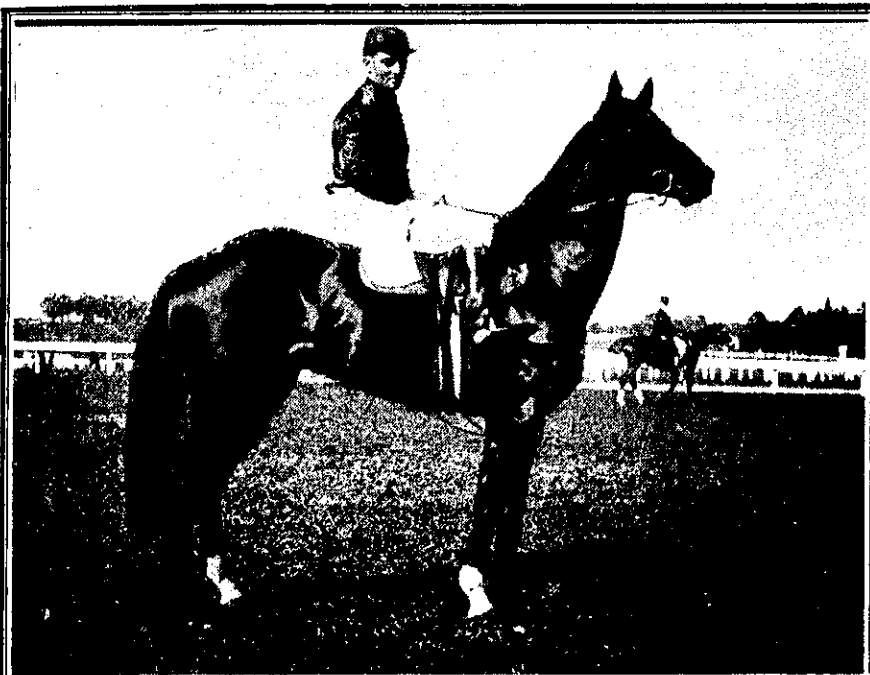

A CHARACTERISTIC WAR TIME STREET SCENE IN THE FASHIONABLE FIFTH AVENUE, NEW YORK. A happy party of French and American sailors constituted a feature of a recent Sunday parade of fashion and society in Fifth Avenue, New York.

CORPORAL CLIFFORD P. LAWSON, of Mangamaire, Wellington. Killed in action.

CORPORAL ALFRED J. MONKMAN (M.M.), of Firth Street, Hamilton East, Waikato. Killed in action.

A WELL-KNOWN NORTH ISLAND HURDLER REPORTED AMISS.—Mr. J. Bull's (Junnr.) b g COLORADO, by Frisco—Etesian. A. McDonald in saddle.

A FANCIED WINTER CUP CANDIDATE.—Mr. Jas. Bull's (Junnr.) b g ALL OVER, 5yrs, by All Red—Mumm. L Morris in saddle.