MORE than to review the features which are individual to the Crossley Car, the object of this, and subsequent advertisements, is to impress prospective motor car buyers with the fact that all the experience of 60 years' manufacturing of the World's finest gas engine has gone into the building of Crossley Motor Cars of the past. This knowledge, together with that which has recently been accumulated in executing giant engineering orders for our own and our Allies' Governments, will go into the building of the Crossley "After-the-War" Motor Car. This Car will be well worth waiting for.
