READ THIS AND THEN ACT.

This Property has been inspected for us by one of Poverty Bay's leading station managers, and in his report he states: "This is the cheapest place I have seen for a long time, and is quite equal to country selling round — at £12 per acre. Lies well to the sun and is well watered and judiciously subdivided. A rattling good proposition and a real snip at the money."

Buscke & Parker, SOLE AGENTS, GISBORNE.

SHEEP STATION. 3,700 ACRES.

2500 FREEHOLD—1200 N.L. at 4d. per acre rental; 1000 acres in good grass; rest bush, fern and scrub; all rideable; well fenced and watered by river and creeks. Carrying over 2300 sheep, 95 head cattle and 30 horses. Good 7-r. homestead, all conveniences. House for married couple, woolshed, 5 machines, good yards and dip. PRICE, £3 10s. PER ACRE. CASH £5000, balance arranged, or would entertain good town properties as deposit or as part payment. (No. 176.)

"This does not want much consideration; while you are thinking about it the other man is getting in first... Look sharp, and you will be first!"
