

An Interesting Series of Pictures taken in Egypt by a New Zealand Soldier

1. New Zealanders watching their shells bursting in the Turkish trenches. 2. Some of the boys enjoying a pleasant trip down the Nile on the riverboat. 3. A resident of Jaffa returning to the city after he had been expelled therefrom. 4. New Zealand soldiers with their horses just before they attacked Beersheba. 5. One of the New Zealanders' old camps on the beach. 6. Graves of Australian soldiers in the streets of Jaffa. 7. Turkish women in quest of water supplies. 8. View of the city of Jaffa, the citizens of which gave the New Zealanders a rousing welcome as the latter rode through the streets. 9. Some of the guns captured by the New Zealanders at Beersheba. 10. Maori soldiers enjoying a much-appreciated trip on the Nile. 11. German Consul's residence at Jaffa, which was made the headquarters of the New Zealand officers.