

Recent Functions and Happenings in London, which aroused Keen Interest and Enthusiasm

FIRE BRIGADE WEDDING IN LONDON. A novel feature of a fireman's wedding which recently took place at the Old Parish Church, Church End, Hendon, was the part played by the bridegroom's fellow members of the fire brigade, who are seen drawing the motor car containing the bridal couple from the church after the ceremony.

DICKENS PILGRIMAGE TO WESTMINSTER ABBEY.—British and foreign pilgrims gathered at Westminster Abbey, London, to lay wreaths on Dickens' tomb on the occasion of the hundredth anniversary of the great novelist's birth, which was recently celebrated in London.

CHORUS GIRLS AS CHAMBERMAIDS. A BEVY OF HIPPODROME CHORUS GIRLS WHO VOLUNTEERED TO SERVE AS CHAMBERMAIDS AND WAITRESSES DURING THE RECENT STRIKE OF THE LONDON HOTEL WORKERS.

DISSATISFIED WITH THE SLOW METHODS OF DEMOBILISATION AFTER THE WAR. A large demonstration outside Victoria Station, London, as a protest against the delay in returning them to civilian life and to their homes.