

A Welcome Return to Athletic Sports in England and in France---Tennis, Sculling and Cycling Contests create Interest

1. The French crew which competed in the recent Inter-Allied Boat Race on the River Seine, which was won by New Zealand. The Frenchmen are shown setting off for a trial trip. 2. The British riders, C. C. McKaid and A. C. Hart, leading the French representatives, whom they defeated in both of the two-lap races in the International Tandem Races at Herne Hill in England. 3. The brilliant young Victorian tennis player, Gerald L. Paterson, taking part in the recent tennis tournament at the Roehampton Club, London, where he won the Final Singles, defeating Dodds, the Scottish champion. 4. Sir Philip Sassoon playing at the recent Roehampton tennis tournament. 5. The Roehampton Lawn Tennis Tournament—Miss Ryan, who played a bustling game with R. V. Thomas in the Mixed Doubles.