

Holiday Scenes in London during the Easter Celebrations.

LONDONERS ENJOY THEIR EASTER VACATION IN CHARACTERISTIC FASHION FOR THE FIRST TIME FOR FIVE YEARS WITHOUT THE PRESENCE OF THE GRIM SPECTRE OF WAR TO MAR THEIR PLEASURES. A RECORD CROWD AT HAMPSTEAD HEATH, WHERE THE FAIR ON EASTER MONDAY ATTRACTED THE LARGEST CROWD EVER SEEN AT THIS POPULAR HOLIDAY RESORT.

TWO NEW ZEALANDERS SURVEYING LONDON FROM THE WESTMINSTER CATHEDRAL TOWER DURING THE EASTER HOLIDAY CELEBRATIONS IN THE METROPOLIS. BY PERMISSION OF THE MILITARY AUTHORITIES, WESTMINSTER CATHEDRAL TOWER, WHICH HAS BEEN CLOSED DURING THE WAR, WAS RE-OPENED IN TIME FOR THE EASTER HOLIDAYS, AND MANY COLONIAL SOLDIERS AND OTHER VISITORS ENJOYED UNIQUE VIEWS OF LONDON OBTAINED FROM THE LOFTY HEIGHT.
