

The success of the weekly talks given by Miss Edith Lens, at Viavi Rooms, Third Floor, Ellison Chambers, Queen Street, Auckland, is evidenced by the ever increasing number of ladies who esteem it a privilege to hear her. Miss Lens has for many years been associated with Viavi, and it has always been her aim to impart useful knowledge to suffering humanity. She possesses a charming personality, a desire to uplift and a sympathetic tendency that cannot help but encourage those who desire to live more beautiful and helpful lives. Miss Lens' talks are held every Wednesday afternoon, commencing at half-past two.

We Have Won the Fight For Supremacy in the Typewriter World.

THERE was a reason, of course. We saved the typist's time, i.e., made her more valuable and efficient in the service of her employer, the chief factor in this being the device which of all the REMINGTON exclusive labour-lifting devices was sufficient to place our machine a decade in front of any other make of typewriter on the market, namely, THE REMINGTON SELF-STARTER.

It will go down in Typewriter History.

THAT every labour-lifting device on any make of typewriter was first on the Remington. Of course, we have imitators, but that is the sincerest form of flattery.

NOW IT IS 10 TO 1

CHANCES that your daughter will have to use this machine when she sets out on her business career.

THEREFORE it would be wise to have her tutored where she will obtain the very best tuition in the manifold uses of the Japanese Curtain Silks A Special Purchase.

Quite the Quaintest and Most Unique Line we've ever Shown for Casement Curtains and Furnishings.

These are Goods which were refused by a Southern house on account of late delivery. We were offered the seven lengths (about 600 yards) at a job figure, and accepted it without hesitation.

The Silk is absolutely pure and heavy hanging — ten momes.

The design has a draught-board ground of three-inch square blocks—the dark block in various colours, and at intervals on the white squares quaint Japanese symbols in colours are scattered.

There are seven distinct colourings—each unusually beautiful.

NAVY AND BUFF.
BLACK AND EMERALD GREEN.
NAVY AND RESEDA.
GREY AND ROSE.
BLACK AND HELIOTROPE.
GREEN AND ROSE.
DEEP SAGE AND GREY.

Certainly these Goods take the palm for novelty and unusual design, and anyone wanting "out of the ordinary" Furnishings should see them at once.

In the natural order of things, the retail price would be 8s. 11d. yard, but our SPECIAL JOB PRICE IS

5/11 yd.
