beer, but he had not sold any. He had consumed the beer himself and with friends. In cross-examination accused admitted that he had not worked since December 28th.

The Magistrate: "Do you ask the Court to believe that you, who admit that you have been out of work for a month, could afford to give away the quantity of beer that was ordered by you?"

Accused: "I drank a good lot of it myself."

This concluded the evidence. Mr. Turton said his views on sly grog-selling were well known. He had expressed himself over and over again on the subject and would deal severely with all cases proved before him. The demeanour and general conduct of the accused in the box was of such a nature that he (the Magistrate) was compelled to say that he did not believe the evidence given by the accused. He would impose a fine of £50 and costs, £4 7s.

A BULL.

Irishmen are by no means the sole perpetrators of bulls, but they generally make the best ones. Here is a specimen:

"Pat, do you like lettuce?" "No, sor, Oi don't, and, what's more, Oi'm glad Oi don't, for av Oi did, Oi'd ate it; and Oi hate the stuff."

EXACTLY!

Father (after a long search for a book): "Well, here it is; I wonder why one always finds a thing in the last place in which one hunts?" Son: "I expect it's because when we find what we're looking for we stop hunting."

SAVED IN TIME.

"Yes, my friend, I was about to marry the countess when I suddenly learned that she spent more than 50,000 marks a year on her dressmaker." "Then what did you do?" "Why, I married the dressmaker."

Dirty Drinking Glasses!

Good-bye to the old Glass Washing Trough behind the Bar.

An Ingenious Invention.

INDISPENSABLE FOR HOTEL BARS. A NECESSITY FOR PUBLIC HEALTH.

The "L. & D. AUTOMATIC GLASS AND TUMBLER WASHER" completely abolishes the filthy trough practice, which is in existence in many hotels throughout the Dominion. The apparatus is simplicity itself, and, being small in size, conveniently stands on the bar or counter in full view of the public. It has a metallic base and spray arrangement, on which is mounted a round glass chamber, into which the tumbler is pressed mouth downwards. The act of doing so at once raises a Fountain of Water, which washes the inside and outside of the glass in the twinkling of an eye. Every glass is washed in clean, fresh water, and any size glass can be washed.
