SECOND DAY.

The Masterton Racing Club's autumn meeting concluded in glorious weather. The rain that fell the previous evening had the effect of freshening the tracks and grounds considerably, with the result that the climatic conditions were perfect. There was only a moderate attendance. Several of the events were fought out to a bitter finish, testifying that Mr. Pollock had spared no pains in framing his adjustments. The sum of £3000 was put through the totalisator, making £7073 for the two days, compared with £7856 at last year's autumn gathering. There were only six bookmakers licensed. The starting of Mr. T. Cameron was again highly successful. Results:—
