STER).

PENURY is a rich brown horse, standing 16 hands high, and was bred by Colonel W. Hall-Walker. He is built on most symmetrical lines, is of exceptional power, possesses rare bone and substance and is a horse of perfect temperament.

PENURY has six strains of Eclipse blood, and boasts a regular "Hall-Walker" pedigree, and, as might be expected from the famous breeder of Minoru, Polar Star and Slieve Galleon, it is a perfect study in the "art of nicking." Penury's pedigree is particularly rich in the sire numbers. 3, 8, 11, 12 and 14. Penury is a member of Bruce Low's well-known No. 10 family, which has recently provided St. Leger and Derby winners in Bayardo and Lemberg. Queen Mary, 'Penury's ancestress, has only two rivals in the English stud book, for with Pocahontas and Agnes she shares the distinction of being one of a world-renowned trio.

PENURY'S sire, Gallinule, has won a first place with sires of the age. Since 1893, when his stock first began to race, the same of the page with the same stock first began to race, the same stock first began to race the sam he has sired winners of 494 races, valued
