VICTORIA AMATEUR TURF CLUB'S SPRING MEETING.

ARTILLERIE WINS THE CAULFIELD STAKES.

The Victoria Amateur Turf Club inaugurated their spring meeting at Caulfield on Saturday in beautiful weather. The Debutant Stakes gave the stewards some trouble. Crowding occurred in front of the stand when Elvanite was fighting out a good finish. A protest was lodged against Orvieto being declared the winner, but this was dismissed by the stewards after hearing a considerable amount of evidence. The owner of Elvanite will probably appeal against the decision.

The New Zealand mare Artillerie scored an attractive victory in the decision of the Caulfield Stakes, which event, it may be remarked, she also won last year. The following are the details of the racing:—

IOLO WELTER of 200sovs. Seven furlongs.
