

leased to the local sport, Mr W. Rodgers. She is a full sister to Viola, Ahuapai, Humariri, and half sister to Pawa and Ataahua.

Amity, the younger half brother to Undecided, is making good headway in his studies.

Continuance, Paisano, Dogger Bank and Kaipetipeti were entrained from Napier on Saturday morning for Wanganui.

Goldie is the name that has been selected for the rising five-year-old brother to Perceler, while his half brother by The Rand has had the cognomen of Purseaser bestowed upon him.

Mr G. P. Donnelly has leased Otupai to Mr F. B. Donnelly.

The partnership of Paisano previously registered by Messrs G. B. Oman and D. J. Barry and which has just expired, has been renewed to the sixth of May, 1917.

L. Wilson has been offered and accepted a retainer from Mr E. J. Watt to do the riding on the bearers of the blue and white uniform.

Sandstream, who has been having an easy period of it for several months, is again in work on the preparing grounds at Hastings. "Sandy," as he is called, looks bright and well.

War Scare and War Talk, the two half sisters by Martian to Bobrikoff, have been retired from the turf, and are now quartered at their owner's (Mr T. H. Lowry's) Estate Okawa. It is more than probable that the stud matrons' paddock will be their address for the future.

W. Ryan, who has accepted the position of first horseman to the Hon. J. D. Ormond, is now domiciled at Karamu.

Maku is being moved along, and if he goes on favourably in the interim, will be seen out next month at the Winter gatherings at Hastings and Napier Park. There is just a doubt whether he will survive the ordeal of a preparation.

The speedy Royal Fusilier filly Beladame is still one of the idlers on Okawa Station. She is fast growing out of the trouble that laid her aside, and it is anticipated that she will shortly be able to resume her studies.

WELLINGTON.

(From Our Own Correspondent.)

WELLINGTON, Monday. Chatting with Mr D. Buick, M.P., who was on a visit to Wellington this week the Palmerston North sportsman informed your correspondent that he had decided to remain in the racing line and had taken his son, Mr D. Buick, junr. in partnership with him. The latter will attend to the training of the horses, and being careful and painstaking, there is no reason why he should not prove a thorough and reliable trainer. Mr Buick's many friends will hail with satisfaction his determination to remain amongst the ranks of owners.

Acting under advice from Mr Buckley, Dearest was withdrawn from her Connolly Handicap contest this week and will be a starter in the Oamaru Cup on Thursday. The Scout mare was shipped south during the week in charge of H. Goodman.

Mr F. Crossley, the local veterinary surgeon, recently operated upon Whetumarama for respiratory trouble. After the success that attended Mr Crossley's efforts on Undecided, W. Ryan, owner of the Advance gelding, appears well advised in having the operation carried out.

Mr J. H. Pollock's handicaps for the first day's events of the Otaki Maori meeting are due on Saturday next.

The Executive of the Otaki Maori Racing Club are leaving no stone unturned to make their approaching meeting one of the best hitherto held. Excellent fields are assured, and provided the climatic conditions are favourable there should be a large attendance. The club cater for their patrons in a liberal manner and it is owing to this fact that the club is so popular with sporting enthusiasts.

A silent tote has been installed by the Otaki-Maori Racing Club and will be used for the first time next month. Mr J. Ames, who has run his own machines at the native gathering for many years, has been asked by the club to take charge of the new arrangements.

Guy Lawless has been getting through some satisfactory training work at the Hutt. The black is receiving a thorough preparation for her Otaki engagements.

Mira, the grey full brother to Iranui, is hitting out in an attractive manner on the Trentham tracks. Trainer J. W. Lowe entertains hopes of winning another race for the Gisborne sportsman, Mr F. Hall, ere the present season draws to a close.

F. J. Carmont is busy at Levin with Parewanui and Stockade, both of whom have been responsible for some excellent gallops on the local tracks. The pair should be in capital trim by the time the Otaki meeting comes off for decision.

Brown Trout, who is now being trained by F. Higgott at Otaki, will be seen out at the approaching local meeting.

The Achilles colt, Ard Ri, was recently added to the list of geldings by Mr F. Crossley. The youngster is well grown and being solidly put together, should gain some distinction on the racecourses of the Dominion.
