TO STAND THE SEASON.

ACHILLES (IMP.) 13. (1899).

ACHILLES, by Medallion—Nereid, by Goldsborough, is a beautifully proportioned chestnut horse, standing slightly over sixteen hands. He won over £9000 in stake money, and that without being "engaged" as a two or three-year-old, when he was practically invincible.

He proved himself a champion in each of the six seasons he raced, retains all his courage, and he has probably the cleanest set of legs in New Zealand to-day.

He won three Jubilee Cups, two Electric Plates, two C.J.C. Challenges, two North Island Challenges, three Jackson Stakes, the Juvenile Plate, Middle Park Plate (an exceptionally brilliant performance—Machine Gun, 2yrs, had the maiden allowance, and carried 7.2, Achilles, 3yrs, with full penalties, carried 9.10). Manawatu Stakes, Hawke's Bay Stakes, A.R.C. Century Stakes, Wanganui Guineas, Wellington Stakes, Wellington Cup, etc. In fact, no horse in New Zealand performed like him. He has never been unduly taxed, and his constitution is unimpaired. He comes of Bruce Lowe's No. 13 family, whence spring Highfyer, Albert Victor, George Frederick, Orlando, Beadsman, Mendicant, Shotover, etc., while the same family is represented in these colonies by those successful sires Nordenfeldt, Goldsborough, Robinson Crusoe, Martini-Henry, etc.

BEZONIAN (IMP.) 1.

BAY HORSE (half brother to Cicero—Derby, Newmarket Stakes, July Stakes, etc.); bred in England in 1904 by Lord Rosebery, by Velasquez (winner of Prince of Wales' Stakes of 10,000sovs, Champion Stakes, etc., and second in 2000 Guineas and Derby to Galtee More, and half brother to Sir Visto—Derby and St. Leger—and to Bona Vista—2000 Guineas, and sire of Cyllene), from Gas (three-quarter sister to Ladas—2000 Guineas and Derby—and to Chelandry—1000 Guineas, and second in Leger, and dam of Neil Gow—2000 Guineas), by Ayrshire (2000 Guineas, Derby and Eclipse Stakes), from Illuminata (half sister to Footlight, grand-dam of Flair, 1000 Guineas), by Rosicrucian (unbeaten), from Paraffin (three-quarter sister to Lord Lyon—2000 Guineas, Derby and Leger—Achievement—1000 Guineas and Leger—and to Chevissaunce, dam of Jeanette—Oaks and Leger), by Blair Athol (Derby and Leger), from Paradigm (half sister to Rouge Rose, dam of Bend Or—Derby, and sire of Ormonde—2000 Guineas, Derby and Leger).

BEZONIAN was a high-class performer in England. He won the Kempton Breeders' Foal Plate, 1000sovs (beating Galvani), etc. Ran second in the 2000 Guineas to Slieve Galleon in 1.41 4-5th, third in the Champagne Stakes, Prince of Wales' Stakes and Eclipse, and fourth in the Derby to Orby, Woolwinder, and Slieve Galleon (again beating Galvani).

And will Serve a Limited Number of Approved Mares at THIRTY GUINEAS EACH.

For further particulars apply to
ANDREW COCHRAN,
Stud Groom,

A GIFT TO BREEDERS.

TO GET RACEHORSES YOU MUST USE A SUCCESSFUL SIRE.

Numbers of stallions are advertised yearly, but a tried sire is always the best. I have pleasure in announcing to breeders that I have secured that highly successful sire Gluten, which will STAND THE SEASON AT ELLERSLIE.

GLUTEN 8 (IMP.),

BY THURIO (2)—BRAN BREAD.

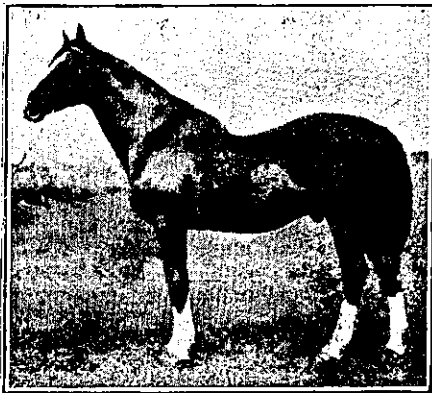

In Australia Gluten sired such good performers as Glucose, Glue, Filament, Evolution, Gloy, Halo, Purple Straw, Quamby, Wheat King, Doughboy, and others which have won over all distances. In New Zealand, although located at a stud where he got limited opportunities, he sired a number of winners, amongst which may be mentioned three of the best horses at present in Auckland, viz.: Goldsize, Gloy, and Tangiwal.

GLUTEN was a great performer, and retired from racing sound and without a blemish, a characteristic he transmits without exception to his stock. In order to give breeders every opportunity of securing the services of a high class sire at a low price, Gluten's fee has been fixed at 10 guineas, payable on the first day of January in each year, which should put him in reach of all breeders.

Good grazing can be had for mares at 2s 6d per week. Every care taken but no responsibility.

SALVADAN is sire of those consistent performers Okaihau, Armagh, Antarctic and Black Northern. These four horses won close on £2000 during the last racing season. Salvadan has had few chances, and ALL of his stock that have been raced up to date have been returned winners. Salvadan's stock all show plenty of size and bone, and stand out prominently as stayers and jumpers.
