

Mrs. Fitzclarence Roberts, a well-known musician, who died in Sydney recently, was a sister of the late Mr. James Copeland, of the firm of Marshall and Copeland, who carried on an extensive brewing business for many years in Dunedin. The late Mrs. Roberts lived at St. Clair for some time prior to leaving for Australia to join her daughter, Mrs. Collins, of Nindoombah, Queensland. Besides Mrs. Collins, Mrs. Roberts left two daughters, Mrs. Bryan Haggitt, of Invercargill, and Mrs. Hunter Macandrew, Wellington. Her only son, Mr. Anstey Roberts, died in Dunedin some years ago.
