

Mr. Harold Reddaway, of the firm of Messrs. P. Reddaway and Co., Ltd., Manchester, England, is making a business visit to Australasia, and has been spending part of the time in Auckland and the thermal districts.

"The only message I can send your meeting is this: that the conscientious objectors, having saved their skins, can afford to refrain from heroic attitudes, and will show a seemly gratitude to the dead by working as hard as they can for that world settlement which the overthrow of an aggressive German militarism has made possible." So wrote Mr. H. G. Wells, the novelist, to a convention of the No-Conscription Fellowship held in London.

A new company of "The Dandies" will commence a tour of the Dominion at Nelson at the end of the present month. Mr. John Hopkins has secured several new English artists, amongst whom are Mr. George Shar-ratt, a character comedian; Miss An-nette Lang, a vivacious soubrette and dancer; Miss Rosa Walton, pianist and monologist; and Mr. J. R. Nicholson, a tenor and light comed-ian. Three members of the old com-pany who gained much popularity have been retained. These are Miss Christine Andrews, soprano; Miss Madoline Knight, contralto; and Mr. Renn Millar, basso.
