

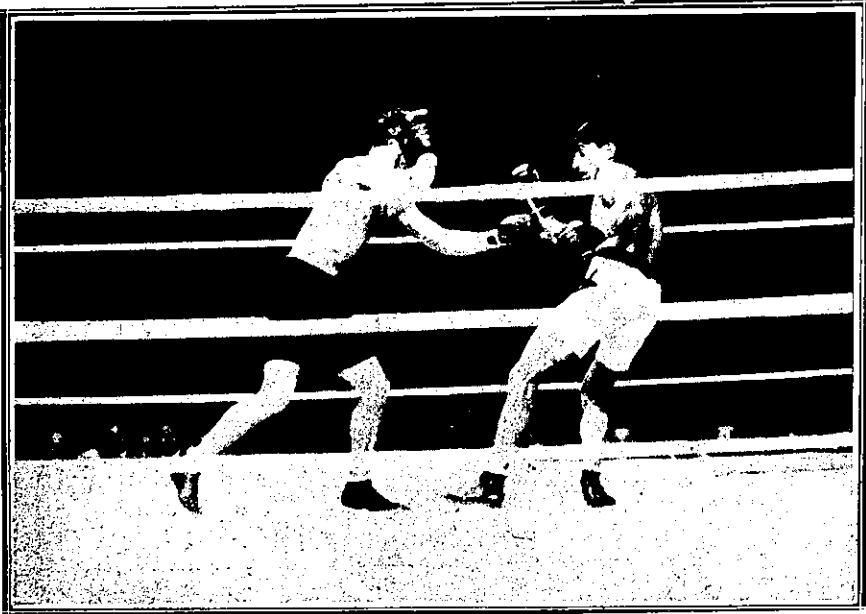

Photographic Series Depicting Various Events and Happenings in the Old Country.

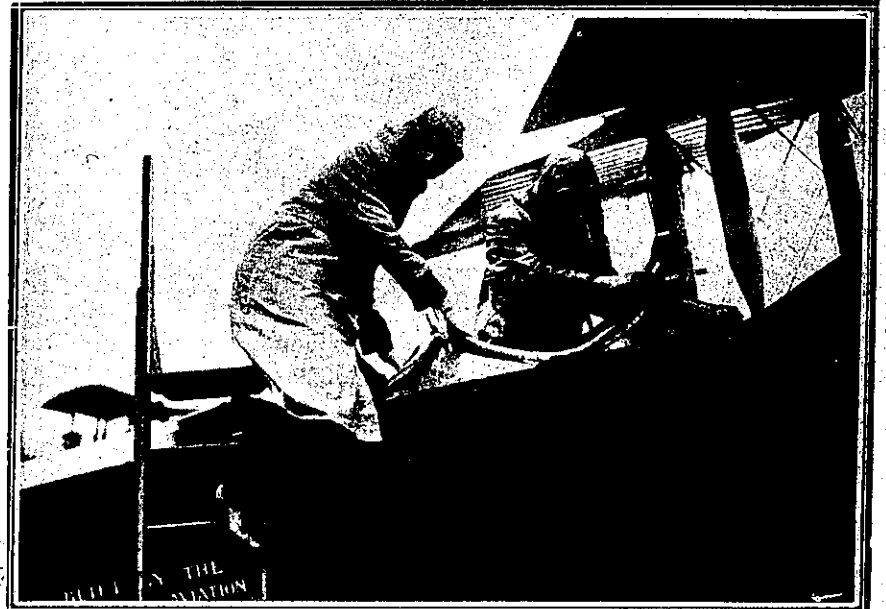

The Hon. Esmond Harmsworth (in centre), the new M.P. for the Isle of Thanet, who is only 21 years of age and the youngest member of Parliament, arriving at the House of Commons. On his right is his father, Viscount Rothermere, and on his left Mr. F. A. Macquisten, K.C., M.P. for Springburn, Glasgow, who with Lieut.-Col. G. C. H. Wheler, M.P. for Faversham, acted as sponsor to the new member.

Heroes decorated on Horse Guards Parade by General Sir C. E. Pereira, K.C.B. The investiture took place on the Horse Guards Parade, the distinctions including the Croix de Guerre and Order of Leopold. Mrs. J. W. Brook is shown receiving the D.C.M. awarded to her husband, who was killed abroad at the time the presentation was made.

The boxing contest at the Albert Hall, London, between Johnny Griffiths (America), and Francis Charles (France), which resulted in the latter being knocked out in the third round. Griffiths is seen forcing the fighting

Flying School established near London for women.—A special flying school for women was recently opened at Eastbourne, quite a number of pupils being immediately secured. One of the pupils is seen boarding a machine for an instruction flight.

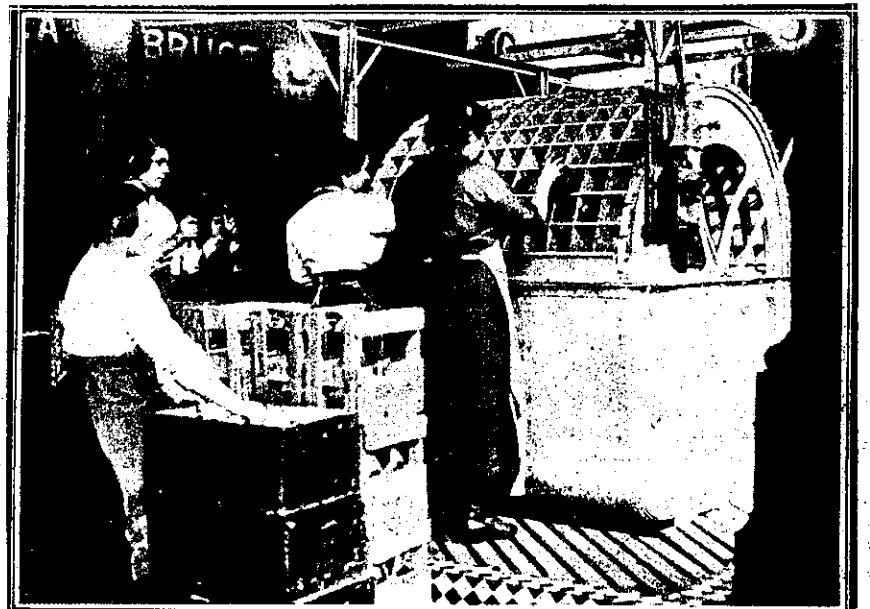

The Surrey Walking Club's Open Annual Walking Race from Croydon to Godstone and back (18¾ miles), in which all the competitors started from scratch. W. Hehir (the present seven miles amateur champion) is shown taking a commanding lead.

The flood season in Wales is experienced in real earnest.—A view across the meadows on the outskirts of Towy, where the floods recently covered an extensive area.

Southdown Foxhounds meet at Lewes, England. The meet took place and started from the centre of the town on the spot where the Old Sussex martyrs were burned at the stake in 1555. The central figures in the illustration are Mr. W. W. Grantham (the well-known barrister and son of the late Judge Grantham) and Miss Grantham.

An interesting exhibit at the Brewers' and Allied Traders' Exhibition, which was recently held at the Royal Agricultural Hall, London.—Girls working a bottle-washing machine, which washes about 500 bottles at the same time.
