

Devotees of Sport and Recreation in England, France, and Norway.

A LEAP INTO SPACE.—SKI-ING AT GJEILO, NORWAY. A glance at the diminutive figures below assures one that while ski-running on the level is the sport of many, jumping must remain the recreation of the expert few.

SKI-SAILING IN NORWAY.—A party of ski-runners are shown taking refreshment from the wind. Ski-sailing is one of the most popular sports in the snow. Parties go out for the day and take refreshments with them in thermos.

WORLD-FAMED FRENCH BOXER WEDS.—GEORGES CARPENTIER, champion heavyweight of Europe, and his wife at the Church of St. Ferdinand des Ternes, Paris, surrounded by an enthusiastic throng of well-wishers on the occasion of their recent marriage.

SHIRE HORSE SHOW AT THE AGRICULTURAL HALL, LONDON.—JUDGE STALLIONS. The King showed his interest in the breeding of shire horses by entries totalled 521.