PRICES.

The net prices for young fowls and ducks of all breeds are as follows: Cockerels and drakes, 7s. 6d. and 10s. per bird, according to selection; pullets and ducks, 10s. each. Coops extra: One or two birds, 2s.; every additional bird, 6d. extra. SPECIALLY SELECTED BIRDS: Minimum price, 15s., including coop.

HOW TO ORDER.

Application should be made verbally or in writing to the Manager of the Poultry-station. The breed required, and, in the case of Leghorns and Orpingtons, the variety also, should be stated. The price the purchaser is willing to pay should be given—i.e., whether a 7s. 6d. or 10s. bird is required. The address to which the birds are to be forwarded should be clearly and legibly written. Any particular instructions as to consignment, route, &c., should also be clearly given. Orders must be accompanied by the proper remittance. Cheques and money-orders should be made payable to the Department, and not to any individual by name. Cheques must have exchange added.
