

THE DOMINION FARMERS' INSTITUTE, WELLINGTON.

This fine building, recently completed, has become the headquarters of the Farmers' Union, the Council of Agriculture, the Farmers' Co-operative Wholesale Federation, the National Dairy Association, the Forestry League, &c. The Board of Agriculture, the Forestry Department, the Farmers' Co-operative Distributing Company, and several other agricultural concerns also have offices in the building. The conference hall is now used for practically all gatherings of the various Dominion agricultural organizations when meeting in Wellington.
