

The clustered rose pink bells of Erica peera rosea are useful for floral decoration.

▼ Red Signal heath (Erica mammosa coccinea), which flowers most of the year.

Erica ventricosa has swollen tubular flowers during spring and summer.

▼ Erica oatesi, usually called Erica "Winter Gem", is one of the brightest dwarf winter-flowering plants.

