PUBLISHED BY AUTHORITY.

WELLINGTON, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 21, 1880.

NEW ZEALAND POLICE GAZETTE.

NOTICE.—For instructions as to the manner in which reports are required to be furnished for the compilation of the Police Gazette, see Gazette No. 1 of this year.

When notifying the arrest of persons charged with larceny, or suspected of larceny, it should be stated in the crime report whether the property stolen, or any portion of it, has been recovered.

The arrest of offenders described in the Police Gazette, or respecting whom crime reports have been forwarded for insertion in the Gazette, should be promptly notified.

A description of property, supposed to be stolen, found in the possession of offenders, for which owners cannot be found, should be furnished for insertion in the Police Gazette.

Communications for this Gazette should be addressed to the Superintendent in Charge, Northern Police Division, Armed Constabulary Depôt, Wellington. Official correspondence on other subjects with the Superintendent in Charge of the Northern Police Division should be similarly addressed.

Reward.

NOTICE is hereby given that rewards not exceeding £5 will be paid by Government to any person or persons who shall give such information to the police as will lead to the conviction of any person who shall sell, or permit or suffer to be sold without a license, any alcoholic liquors.

By order.

R. C. SHEARMAN,
Superintendent in Charge, Northern Police Division.
Superintendent's Office, Constabulary Depôt,
Wellington, 8th January, 1879.

Incendiarism.

THE reward of £200 offered for such information as would lead to the arrest and conviction of any person or persons wilfully setting fire to premises in New Zealand has been withdrawn.

New Zealand Fire Underwriters' Association.

THE offer of a reward of £200 by this Association to any person giving such information to the police or insurance companies as would lead to the detection and conviction of any person or persons concerned in wilfully setting fire to premises in New Zealand is hereby formally withdrawn.

W. DEVENISH MEARES,
Honorary Secretary.

On the morning of the 31st ultimo an unoccupied house at Tapanui, the property of George Woods, was maliciously set on fire, but the fire was discovered and extinguished before any damage was done. The house was not insured.

On the morning of the 22nd ultimo, at Toi Toi, Southland, a stack of wheat and a stack of oats, value £50, the property of Philip Vincent, were maliciously set on fire, by which they were destroyed.

On the morning of the 4th instant, a straw shed in Sydney Street, Wellington, occupied by Terence Gormley, was discovered on fire, which damaged the shed, a cab, and oaten hay to the extent of £50. It is supposed that the fire was wilfully caused. The property was not insured.

DURING the night of the 26th ultimo, at Limestone Plains, five stacks of oats, value £90, the property of Thomas Gilmour, were destroyed by fire, which it is supposed was wilfully caused. The stacks were insured.

Offences Not Otherwise Described.

NEWTON H. ALLUM is charged, on warrant issued by the Christchurch Bench, with having, on the 2nd February last, at Christchurch, induced Edward George to accept a bill for £20 by false pretences. Description: English, a clerk, about twenty-four years of age, 5 feet 4 inches high, medium build, very sallow complexion, thin fair hair, small fair whiskers, and moustache, good address; usually wears blue-serge suit and small quilted grey-tweed hat. He was last heard of at E. A. Fields, Seafield, near Ashburton.

ABOUT 1 o'clock on the morning of the 29th ultimo a man, name unknown, was found in the dwelling of John Graham, Stuart Street, Dunedin. Description: Short stout build; wore dark clothes, and it is supposed had his face blackened.

ABOUT 10 a.m. on the 31st ultimo the points of the Ocean Beach Railway-line, near the Forbury Racecourse, were wilfully altered, which caused the 10.30 a.m. passenger train from Dunedin to Forbury to run off the rails of the line.

ON the morning of the 31st ultimo a sleeper was maliciously placed across the rails of the railway-line near Waipahi, which threw two of the ballast-engine trucks off the line, one of which was broken. A workman employed on the line suspected.

HENRY WATKINS is charged, on warrant issued by the Fryerstown Bench, Victoria, with having, on the 5th July last, at Fryerstown, committed rape on Mary Ann Ryan, his step-daughter, under twelve years of age. Description: A native of Gloucestershire, a miner, thirty-four years of age, 5 feet 4 or 5 inches high, stout build, about 12 stone weight, sallow complexion, brown hair, small light whiskers and moustache, blue eyes, very large mouth, very short legs, waddling gait; wears dark pagot coat, plaid trousers and vest, black wide-awake hat, and large silver neck watch-chain. He is fond of frequenting public-houses and billiard-rooms. He will likely seek employment as a miner. It is supposed he has come to this colony or gone to Tasmania.
