CONDITIONS FOR TROUT-FISHING IN MAITAI AND WAIMEA RIVERS, NELSON.

JAMES PRENDERGAST,
Administrator of the Government.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by "The Salmon and Trout Act, 1867," His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the Colony of New Zealand doth hereby make the following regulations for the Provincial District of Nelson:—

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of October, 1881.
2. Any holder of a license, as hereinafter mentioned, may fish with rod and line for trout in the Maitai and Waimea Rivers, and their affluents, from the 1st day of October, 1881, until the 31st day of March, 1882, but only between the hours of 5 o'clock in the morning and 10 o'clock in the evening.

3. Licenses to fish with rod and line in the said waters will be issued under the hand of the Secretary of the Nelson Acclimatisation Society, and for every license a fee of ten shillings will be charged.

4. No license shall authorize any person other than the person named therein to fish, and that only with rod and line.

5. Any person fishing without a license, or any person who shall on demand of any person holding and showing a license, or on the demand of any police officer or constable, fail to produce and show to such person, police officer, or constable his license, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds.

6. All trout not exceeding seven inches in length taken by any person fishing as aforesaid shall be immediately returned alive to the water; and any person convicted of infringing this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding twenty pounds sterling, and his license shall thereupon become void.

7. Except as aforesaid, no person shall fish or use any net or other engine, instrument, or device for taking fish in any river or stream within the Provincial District of Nelson; and all persons offending against this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding fifty pounds.

8. Any person who puts, throws, or places, or allows to be put thrown, or placed, into any river or stream within the said Provincial District of Nelson, any dynamite or other explosive substance, or any matter or liquid deleterious to fish, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding one hundred pounds.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, this twenty-second day of September, one thousand eight hundred and eighty-one.

THOMAS DICK.

CONDITIONS FOR TROUT-FISHING IN CANTERBURY.

JAMES PRENDERGAST,
Administrator of the Government.

IN pursuance of the powers and authorities vested in him by "The Salmon and Trout Act, 1867," His Excellency the Administrator of the Government of the Colony of New Zealand doth hereby make the following regulations for that part of the Provincial District of Canterbury lying to the north of the Rangitata River:—

REGULATIONS.

1. These regulations shall come into force on the 1st day of October, 1881.

2. Licenses to fish for trout in all the rivers, streams, and lakes in the Provincial District of Canterbury north of the Rangitata River will be issued under the hand of the Secretary of the Canterbury Acclimatisation Society at Christchurch, and for every such license a fee of twenty shillings will be charged; provided that it shall not be obligatory upon the said Secretary to issue a license in case he shall have sufficient good reason for refusing the same.

3. Every such license shall entitle the person named therein to fish in any of the said rivers, streams, and lakes, from the 1st day of October, 1881, until the 31st day of March, 1882, between the hours of 5 a.m. and 10 p.m. only, but no such license shall confer any right of entry upon the land of any person without his consent.

4. Every such license shall entitle the person named therein to fish with rod and line only, and any person who shall use any ground-bait, or any net (except a landing net), or other engine, instrument, or device, or shall use or employ either of the methods known as "cross-line fishing," or "stroke-hauling," or any other unsportsmanlike device, or shall use as bait salmon-roe or any bait prepared with any chemical or medicated dressing whatever, for taking fish in any of the said rivers, streams, or lakes, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £50; and every such net, or other engine, instrument, or device used contrary to these regulations shall be forfeited.

5. Any person fishing without a license, and any person who shall, on the demand of any person holding and showing a license, or on the demand of any police officer or constable, or of any officer of the said Acclimatisation Society, fail to produce and show to such person, police officer, constable, or officer his license, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

6. Every trout not exceeding eight inches in length taken by any person shall be immediately returned alive into the water from which the same is taken, and any person infringing this regulation shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £20.

7. Any person who shall put, throw, or place, or allow to be put, thrown, or placed, into any river, stream, or lake in the said Provincial District of Canterbury, any poisonous, deleterious, or noxious material, with intent to destroy any fish therein, shall be liable to a penalty not exceeding £100.

8. If any person shall be convicted of any offence against these regulations, the convicting Magistrate or Justices may, over and above any penalty inflicted, also declare the license of
