respecting whom crime reports have been forwarded for insertion in the Gazette, should be promptly notified.

When notifying the arrest of persons charged with larceny, or suspected of larceny, it should be stated whether the property stolen, or any portion of it, has been recovered.

Perty stolen, or any portion of it, has been recovered.

A description of property, supposed to be stolen, found in the possession of offenders, for which owners cannot be found, should be furnished for insertion in the Gazette.

Communications for this Gazette should be addressed to the Commissioner of Constabulary, Wellington, and the envelopes marked "For Gazette."

Supposed Murder. Wi Kaipuki, a Maori chief, while ill at Murewai, Poverty Bay, accused Te Rapaera of having bewitched him, and said that if he died Te Rapaera would be killed. Wi Kaipuki died on the 21st ultimo, when it was said by the Natives that Te Rapaera was to be killed for causing his death. Te Rapaera left Murewai and went to Whateongaonga when first accused of having bewitched deceased; he returned to Murewai on the 6th ultimo, and arranged with Hemi Mahuki for the safe-keeping of his property; and, as he has not since been seen or heard of, it is now supposed he has been murdered. He is described as follows: A native of a Maori village near Wairoa, about fifty years of age, about 5 feet 7 inches high, square stiff build, round features, very weak tested. much tattooed, prominent piercing eyes, nose inclined to be aquiline; usually wears trousers and vest, shirt, boots, and hat; rarely wears a coat. He had to leave his native village some years ago on account of being accused of witchcraft. Suspicion attached to Maoris living at Murewai or Whareongaonga. He may not have been murdered, but may have gone to some other Maori settlement.

Incendiarism.

Between 5 p.m. on the 23th and 8 a.m. on the 29th September last the premises of Thomas John Walters, rangemaker, situate off Cashel Street, Christchurch, were entered through the office-window, and two attempts made in different places to set the premises on fire, but very little damage was done.

BETWEEN 8 p.m. on the 13th and 7 a.m. on the 14th instant a gate at the entrance leading to the dwelling of William Craig, Hospital Flat, Waitahuna Road, near Law-rence, was maliciously taken off its hinges, carried about 50 yards away, and burned.

On the morning of the 6th instant an unoccupied threeroomed cottage at Patea, the property of James Lett, was destroyed by fire, which it is supposed was maliciously caused. It was insured in the Union Office for £100, which amount is in excess of what it was worth. The fire extended to an unoccupied two-roomed house, the property of David Donnelly, which was partially destroyed. It was insured in the Standard Office for £60.
