Extracts from South Australian Police Gazette.

(From Gazette, 1884, pages 166 and 170.)

ESCAPED PRISONER.—Escaped from the cells at Adelaide Police Court, at 10.30 a.m. on the 26th instant (August, 1884), William Summers Waterford, alias Munroe, charged with storebreaking, &c. Description: Age, about forty years; height, 6 feet; spare build, long face, long brown side whiskers and moustache, about a week's growth of beard on chin; wearing light trousers, drab soft felt hat with very wide brim, and white comforter round neck. The capture of this man is of the utmost importance; he is an expert criminal and expirer from Western Australia. (See Police Gazette, 1877, page 22, William Sommers. C. 1618.)

Re Waterford, escaped prisoner: The photograph published herewith to be noted with some reservation, as a likeness of the escapee, it being a copy from one presumably taken some time back. Offender, who is reported to be now shaved, follows the occupation of carpenter, bricklayer, or mason. He has a very prominent nose and piercing eyes.
£10 reward for capture.—(C. 1618.)
