Offer of Free Pardon to an Accomplice.

Department of Justice,
Wellington, 21st January, 1885.

WHEREAS on or about the 10th day of January instant the premises of the New Zealand Timber Company, situated in the City of Auckland, were set on fire:

This is to notify that His Excellency the Governor will grant a free pardon to any person implicated in the said act, not being the principal offender, who will give such information as will lead to the apprehension and conviction of any one or more of the other offenders.

JOS. A. TOLE.

At 9.40 p.m. on the 10th ultimo the premises of the New Zealand Timber Company, Customs Street West, Auckland, was discovered on fire, which it is supposed was maliciously caused, by which property to the value of £8,000 was destroyed. The building, stock, and machinery were insured in the Norwich Union Office for £3,000. A reward of £100 and a free pardon to an accomplice are offered for such information as will lead to the conviction of the person or persons who caused the fire.

BETWEEN 7 and 8 p.m. on the 9th December last an old two-roomed cottage at Ashburton Forks, Canterbury District, the property of Philip Tisch, was maliciously destroyed by fire. The cottage was insured in the United Insurance Office for £60, which amount is in excess of what it was worth.

ABOUT 10.50 p.m. on the 30th December last, at Winton, a house, the property of Thomas Sellars, was maliciously set on fire, but the fire was discovered and extinguished before much damage was done. A heap of rags saturated with kerosene oil was found on fire in one of the rooms. Sellars left the house at 8 p.m. on the date of the fire, leaving it unlocked. His property was not insured. The adjoining house was occupied by Henry Crawford, a shoemaker, who had his clothing, &c., insured for £50, which is largely in excess of its value. The insurance company have since cancelled his policy of insurance.

On the 5th or 6th ultimo, at Ryal Bush, Southland, about 3½ cords of firewood, the property of William Baird, value £1 10s., was destroyed by fire, which it is supposed was maliciously caused.

SETTING fire to a house at Leeston, occupied by Thomas Frankish: Elizabeth Ireland, who was employed as a servant in the house, has been arrested for this offence by Constable W. J. Simpson, Leeston Police, and committed for trial.

It is thought she may have died; and, if so, the whereabouts of her niece, named Lewis, twelve years of age, who was living with her, is desired. She is inquired for at the instance of the Rev. R. Faraker, 37, Fernhead Road, St. Peter's Park, Paddington, London, through Bishop Cowie, of Auckland.

INFORMATION is requested respecting William Henry Strange, a native of Herefordshire, England, a farm-labourer, about forty-six years of age, 5 feet 10 or 11 inches high, stout build, dark complexion, dark curly hair, full dark beard and moustache. His wife resides at Papanui. He was heard of at the coal mines, Malvern, about six weeks ago, and was recently charged at the Resident Magistrate's Court, Christchurch, with having committed an assault at Papanui. He is inquired for in order that he may be proceeded against for the support of his three children in the Burnham Industrial School.

INFORMATION is requested respecting William McDonald, a native of Scotland, a baker, about thirty-seven years of age, 5 feet 11 inches high, slight build, fair fresh complexion, long features, fair hair, bald on top of head, clean-shaved, right little finger bent, wears a ring on it; when last seen wore light-tweed suit and elastic-side boots. He was heard of in Oamaru about two months ago. He is inquired for so that he may be proceeded against for the support of his daughter, who is an inmate of the Burnham Industrial School.

INFORMATION is requested respecting Ellen Sage, a native of Limerick, a servant, twenty-five years of age, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, dark-brown hair and eyes, squints, long nose, high cheek-bones, sickly appearance; dressed in red petticoat and old silk jacket; was bareheaded and barefooted. She arrived at Lyttelton on the 22nd March last by the "Ionic." She left Mrs. Perrin's farm, West Oxford, on the evening of the 17th ultimo, and has not since been heard of. As she is of weak intellect, fears for her safety are entertained.

INFORMATION is requested respecting Richard Carney, a native of the colony, a labourer, twenty-five years of age, 5 feet 9 inches high, slight build, brown hair, sandy whiskers and moustache, dark-blue eyes, walks very upright. He was heard of at Kaikoura about the end of November last, and was then working at a bridge there. He is inquired for at the instance of his mother, who resides at 36, Tuam Street, Christchurch.

INQUIRY is requested for James O'Meara, who has been in Australia since 1864. Description: Twenty-one years of age, 5 feet 6 to 8 inches high, stout build, fair complexion, brown hair, scar on cheek from a burn; has been in Palmerston, Wellington, New Zealand. It is thought he may be stock-riding on a station in this or one of the sister colonies. Has not been seen by his parents since 1878. His parents, who live in Sydney Road, Essendon, are anxious to hear of the missing man, for whom they have frequently advertised.—O. 151, 9th January, 1885.

Altering Boundaries of Rotorua Licensing District, and defining Omataroa Licensing District.

(L.S.) WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS,
Governor.

A PROCLAMATION.

WHEREAS by the sixth section of "The Licensing Act, 1881," it is enacted that the Governor shall, as soon as conveniently may be after the commencement of the said Act, by Proclamation in the Gazette, from time to time define districts to be licensing districts under the said Act, and from time to time may alter and redefine the boundaries of the same:

Now, therefore, I, William Francis Drummond Jervis, the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby, in pursuance and exercise of the power and authority vested in me by the said Act, alter and redefine the boundaries of the Rotorua Licensing District, which shall henceforth be those described in the First Schedule hereto, and do also hereby proclaim and define the part of the colony mentioned and described in the Second Schedule hereto to be an ordinary licensing district for the purposes of the said Act.

FIRST SCHEDULE.

Rotorua.—Comprises all that area known as the Ridings of Rotorua and Maketu, as described in the New Zealand Gazette No. 63, 28th November, 1876; exclusive of the Thermal-Springs Special Licensing District.

SECOND SCHEDULE.

Omataroa.—Comprises all that area known as the Riding of Omataroa, as described in the New Zealand Gazette No. 63, 28th November, 1876.

Given under the hand of His Excellency Sir William Francis Drummond Jervis, Lieutenant-General in Her Majesty's Army, Knight Grand Cross of the Most Distinguished Order of Saint Michael and Saint George, Companion of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath, Governor and Commander-in-Chief in and over Her Majesty's Colony of New Zealand and its Dependencies, and Vice-Admiral of the same; and issued under the Seal of the said Colony, at Christchurch, this twenty-sixth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and eighty-five.
