Shooting Season for Imported and Native Game, License-fee, &c., Tauranga District.

JAMES PRENDERGAST,
Administrator of the Government.

IN exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Animals Protection Act, 1880," and the Acts amending the same, I, James Prendergast, the Administrator of the Government of the Colony of New Zealand, do hereby notify that pheasants and Californian quail may be taken or killed within the Tauranga District, consisting of the Counties of Tauranga and Rotorua, and so much of the Counties of East Taupo and Whakatane as lies to the north of the Rangitaiki River, together with all boroughs therein, from the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, to the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, both inclusive (subject nevertheless to the restrictions in the said Acts mentioned). And I do further notify that licenses to take or kill such game within the said district shall be issued on payment of the sum of twenty shillings each, and that licenses to sell game and native game shall be issued on the payment of the sum of five pounds each; and the Postmasters at Tauranga and Rotorua are hereby appointed to sign and issue the said licenses.

And I do further declare that native game, excepting tui, huia, white heron, and crested grebe, may be taken or killed within the above-mentioned district from the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, to the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, both days inclusive.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, this thirteenth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.

P. A. BUCKLEY,
Colonial Secretary.

Shooting Season, Hawke's Bay, to commence on Monday, 2nd May.

JAMES PRENDERGAST,
Administrator of the Government.

WHEREAS by a warrant made under "The Animals Protection Act, 1880," dated the third day of March, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, and published in the New Zealand Gazette of the same date, it is notified, amongst other things, that certain game and native game may be taken or killed in the Hawke's Bay District from the first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, until the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, both days inclusive: And whereas it is expedient to alter the said dates as hereinafter mentioned:

Now, therefore, I, James Prendergast, the Administrator of the Government of the Colony of New Zealand, in exercise of the powers vested in me by the aforesaid "Animals Protection Act, 1880," do hereby declare that the game and native game mentioned in the aforesaid warrant may be taken or killed in the Hawke's Bay District from Monday, the second day of May, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, until Saturday, the thirtieth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two, both days inclusive.

As witness the hand of His Excellency the Administrator of the Government, this twentieth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and ninety-two.
