(See Police Gazette, 1894, pages 61 and 72.)

NGAPARA.—Stealing Edward Menlove's two mares: William Oliver has been arrested by Constable W. Fouhy, Roxburgh Police, for this offence, and committed for trial by the Oamaru Bench. Mares recovered.

ASHBURTON.—Henry Constable Segers, draper, reports stolen from his paddock, on the 11th or 12th instant, a chestnut mare, ten years old, 15½ hands high, unbranded, cut from barbed-wire inside near thigh, shod with bar shoes on fore feet, well-bred, fast buggy-trotter; value £20. Had on a canvas cover with leather crupper; value, £1.

Re Edward Mortimer, charged with stealing Reremoana's racing-mare "Moutoa": Offender is probably identical with a man of same name wanted for larceny at Napier. (See "Stealing otherwise," &c., in this Gazette.)

Missing Friends.

JOHN STEWART is inquired for by Leslie Stewart Gibson, 21, Wolseley Street, Glasgow. He married a daughter of a Mr. Rennay, at Fairlie Creek, and left for Wellington about four years ago. Is said to have had a contract for clearing six miles of bush for a railway, and intended taking up a Government allotment on a ten years' purchase. Mr. Rennay was supposed to have been employed at the Napier or Wellington Hospital, but is not known at either place. If he can be found, he will probably know Stewart's address. (94/435.)

JOHN FRY, formerly of Adelaide Cottage, Stonehouse, Plymouth, left London many years ago to work at the Lyttelton Breakwater. Description: Forty-six years of age, 5ft. 4in. high, set growth, fair complexion. Is inquired for by Henry Fry, signalman, Great Western Railway, Marsh Mills, Devon. (94/560.)

HERBERT CHARLES SCUDAMORE is inquired for by the Chief Commissioner, Victoria Police, on behalf of his father, W. R. Scudamore, 16, Burland Road, Clapham Common, London, S.W. He is about twenty-four years of age, fair complexion, about 5ft. 10in. high. Last heard from on 11th December, 1893, by letter from Waitotara, N.Z., but cannot be traced there now. (94/521.)

EDWARD TONKIN is inquired for by his nephew, James Tredrea, General Post Office, Adelaide, South Australia. Description: A native of Cornwall, England, a labourer and miner, about 5ft. 9in. high, stiff build, full dark beard whiskers and moustache. Has been a railway ganger or linesman. Is known to James Breen, who had a contract at Fitzherbert, near Palmerston North, and left there recently. (94/346.)

(See Police Gazette, 1894, pages 4 and 20.)

JAMES HARDWICK has been found at Mokihini, near Westport.

MICHAEL BARRY, who left Stratford on the 13th March last, is inquired for by the New Plymouth police. Description: Irish, a labourer, fifty years of age, 5ft. 6in. high, medium build, dark complexion, hair and beard turning grey, blue eyes; wore a serge suit and soft-felt hat; a widower. Is supposed to be living with a woman about 5ft. 4in. high, thirty years of age, slight build, sallow complexion, dark hair and eyes; she has a boy about four years old. Barry expressed an intention of going to Auckland, where her parents are said to be in the hotel business. Inquiry is for the purpose of compelling him to comply with an order of Court to pay 10s. a week for the maintenance of his children at St. Mary's School, Nelson, the sum of £9 being now due.

OTTO MAR SCHIEBLICH is inquired for by the Christchurch police. Description: A German, a watchmaker, forty-five years of age, 5ft. 3in. high, medium build, sallow complexion, brown hair, hazel eyes, usually shaves except moustache; single; latterly much addicted to drink. He disappeared from his shop in Victoria Street, Christchurch, about the 20th March last, leaving a small stock of watches, &c., on the premises. Has a brother in Melbourne.

ANNIE McMILLAN is inquired for through the Cullensville police. Description: Scotch, a domestic servant, nineteen years of age, 5ft. 4in. high, fair hair, grey eyes; wore a black-cashmere dress, black-lace hat, and light-coloured mackintosh. She left home on the 21st March last, in company with a young man named James Hancock, and they are supposed to have gone to Wellington via Blenheim. Hancock has an uncle in the Permanent Artillery, Wellington, who may know something of their whereabouts.
