Now, therefore, His Excellency the Governor of the Colony of New Zealand, in pursuance and exercise of the powers conferred upon him by the said Act, and acting by and with the advice and consent of the Executive Council of the said colony, doth hereby make the regulations set forth in the Schedule hereto ; and with the like advice and consent doth order that such regulations shall take effect on and after the publication hereof in the New Zealand Gazette, and shall have force and effect in that portion of the Blake River, otherwise known as the Waimea Creek, defined in the said regulations.

SCHEDULE.

REGULATIONS.

1. ALL that portion of the Blake River, otherwise known as the Waimea Creek, in the County of Westland, extending from half a mile above the point at which the Christchurch Road crosses the said river to one mile and a half below the said point (the said river being a stream in which salmon and trout have been liberated), is hereby set apart for the natural or artificial propagation of fish.
2. No person shall fish for, take, or catch any fish in the above-described portion of the said river or creek within a period of two years from the date of the publication hereof.
3. Any person committing a breach of the above regulation shall be liable to a penalty of not less than £1 and not exceeding £50.
4. Every penalty imposed by these regulations may be recovered in a summary manner before any two or more Justices of the Peace.
