

the support of his illegitimate child. Description: English, a clerk, thirty-one years of age, 6ft. high, rather stout build, upright soldierly appearance, good looking, fair complexion, fair hair (inclined to curl), blue eyes, fair moustache only; well educated, and speaks Hindustani fluently. He is a great friend of criminal Alfred George Weippert (see Police Gazette, 1894, page 127), who would probably know his whereabouts.

ANDREW CLARK is inquired for by the Dunedin Police at the instance of his wife, and with the view of compelling him to provide for her maintenance. Description: Scotch (broad accent), a ploughman, fifty-two years of age, but looks younger, about 5ft. 8in. high, stout build, fair hair and complexion, reddish whiskers beard and moustache mixed with grey, dark-blue eyes, point off one finger (supposed left-hand), wears silver earrings; dressed, when last seen, in a light-check-tweed sac-suit and soft dark-felt hat. Was at Oamaru on the 13th December, 1894, but no trace of him can be obtained there now.

BAIN.—Information is requested concerning David Bain, forty-eight years of age, tall, dark, has been a sailor and cooper, a son of Alexander Bain (deceased), of Edinburgh, Scotland. He is said to have been employed on a Government dredge in this colony during the years 1880-81. Inquiry is made by B. Cooke, of Sydney, on behalf of the missing man's two sisters. (P.W. 95/482.)
