Public Administration Diploma.

The following copy of a notice which has been issued by the Public Service Commissioner is published for the information of members of the Force.

Any member with the necessary qualifications who desires to apply for a scholarship should submit his application to this office through the usual official channel.

D. J. CUMMINGS, Commissioner of Police.

Wellington, 17th January, 1941. (P. 40/660.)

see 1942, p. 108.

Diploma in Public Administration.

Applications are invited from officers of the Public Service for scholarships to study the course for the Diploma in Public Administration at Victoria University College.

- (1) Applications are to be made on P.S.C. Form 6 to the Secretary, Public Service Commissioner, and must be received by noon on 4th February, 1941;
- (2) Applicants must set out details of the results (with marks and classes) of their academic studies since passing the University Entrance Examination;
- (3) A concise statement is to be made as to the applicants' status in relation to military service.

The conditions of the scholarship are—

- (1) It is tenable at Victoria University College for two years;
- (2) Scholars will have to enter upon their studies on 3rd March, 1941;
- (3) £100 and £170 will be paid to single men and married men respectively for each of the two years during the period they are at the College. During the long vacation (a period of approximately four months and a half) the scholars may resume official duty at their classified salary. The College fees will also be paid for the students;
- (4) Each scholar must enter into a contract binding him to service with the State Services of New Zealand for not less than five years after the completion of the course.

The prescription for the course and the conditions thereof are (save for immaterial amendments) set out in the Public Service Official Circular of 1st March, 1940, (quoted below) and may also be read in the Victoria University College Calendar. It is to be noticed that the pre-requisite examination may be waived this year.

For the information of candidates, who should draft their applications accordingly, scholars will be selected with reference to (a) their official record; (b) academic record and attainments; (c) personal character and general fitness. Candidates could with advantage state the avocations in which they engage—e.g., cultural and sporting interests.

VICTORIA UNIVERSITY COLLEGE.

Diploma in Public Administration (D.P.A.).

I. The Diploma in Public Administration shall be granted to candidates who, having passed in the pre-requisite subjects, follow the prescribed course at Victoria University College, attending the lectures, passing the examinations, and fulfilling the other conditions hereinafter prescribed.

II. No candidate for the Diploma shall begin the course until—

(i) He has passed the examinations of the University of New Zealand in the following subjects:—

(1) Economics I: As for B.A. Degree.

(2) Political Science I: As for B.A. Degree.
